MIAMI CONFERENCE MUTUAL BENEFIT SOCIETY

Founded in 1887. In forty-seven years has paid sixty-three death claims. Entrance fee $1.00, annual dues $1.00. Mortality assessment $2.00. When balance in treasury is above $600, assessment after first one in a conference year will be omitted. All members of Miami Conference and their wives are eligible and are urged to join, by sending entrance fee to the secretary. The society pays $200 death benefit on the death of each member. Any member who has paid into the society $200 is excused from further payment of mortality assessments.

Conference Proceedings

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION

After an organ prelude by Mrs. Kathleen Underwood Floyd, Bishop A. R. Clippinger, D.D., called the one hundred and twenty-seventh annual session of the Miami Conference to order and to worship in the Clifton United Brethren Church at 9:30 a.m., September 15, 1936.

Rev. W. I. Underwood, D.D., led in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Rev. J. Assel led in invocation.

We recited our Confession of Faith, being led by Rev. D. T. Gregory, D.D.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger led in a communion meditation. He spoke on the theme "A Spiritualized Feast," basing his remarks on Luke 14:15. He emphasized the joys of reunion in the feast of heaven.

Dr. D. T. Gregory led in reading a Scripture invitation to salvation in Jesus Christ. The hymn, "Come Ye Disconsolate," was sung. Bishop A. R. Clippinger led in unison prayer of confession.

Dr. W. I. Underwood read "The Master's Request," Luke 22:14-20. Dr. W. T. Frank led in prayer of consecration.

Dr. W. I. Underwood and Dr. D. T. Gregory, assisted by Dr. F. L. Dennis, Revs. E. L. Smith, L. M. Hohn, E. H. Nichols, and H. G. Clark, distributed the bread and the cup. At the word of Bishop A. R. Clippinger we partook together of the sacred symbols.

In this service of ceremony, verses of "My Faith Looks up to Thee" and "Just as I Am" were sung. This impressive communion service closed with a period of meditation and the hymn "Blest be the Tie that Binds."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger introduced the memorial service. Rev. J. L. Armstrong read the report of the Committee on Memoirs, which included sketches regarding Rev. Allen Dunkleberger, Mrs. Josephine Assel, Rev. Arthur E. Bittner, and Rev. Mrs. Ruth Hemphill.

Rev. Ivory Zimmerman told of the life and work of Reverend Dunkleberger. "He was a faithful pastor, a good visitor and evangelist. He was successful as pastor and builder of churches."

Rev. E. S. Comrey paid tribute to the devoted spirit of Mrs. Assel. "She was a good listener and worshiper, a faithful and congenial worker in the church."

Rev. W. E. Ward, D.D., spoke on the life of Rev. Arthur E. Bittner. "He was a quiet, humble, faithful Christian. His life counted much for Christ in the church and the community."

Dr. W. I. Underwood spoke of his memories of Rev. Ruth Hemphill. He first knew her thirty-nine years ago. "She was an interested friend of young people and successful in her work with them. She was enthusiastic and efficient as a pastor, a pastor's wife and evangelist."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger, having known each of these departed, spoke of them in a kindly, personal way. He told of the tribute he heard Rev. Allen Dunkleberger pay to his first wife and the prayer he made for the family, on the occasion of that wife's funeral in New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, in 1905.

Mr. Webb Gilbert led in a memorial prayer.

The roll of ministers and lay delegates was called and record was made of those present. The Ministerial Quartet sang.

By motion the main part of the auditorium was made the bar of the conference.

A motion was made and carried that the committees as named in the conference program be the committees of this conference.

Revs. J. P. Hendrix and Ralph Tinsley were named reporters to the press.

Rev. C. B. Boda read his report as conference treasurer. This report showed a gain in benevolences this year over last of $2,176.56. The report was approved.

Mr. E. E. Ullrich gave a brief and encouraging statement as general church treasurer. The increase in benevolences in the Central District this year over last is $11,818.87.

Dr. W. I. Underwood, pastor of Clifton Church, spoke words of welcome, and explanation in regard to entertainment.

A motion was made and carried that we adjourn. The prayer of dismissal was by Rev. W. C. Andreas.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Dr. F. L. Dennis led in singing "Higher Ground." Rev. S. L. Brill read Luke 12:22-40. Rev. Charles E. Fryman led in prayer. We sang "I Know Whom I Have Believed."

Rev. E. H. Nichols read the report of the Committee on Conference Relations. The report was adopted.

Dr. D. T. Gregory read the report of the conference superintendent. This report, which gave a full summary of the record of work and achievements during the year, was placed in the hands of all members present. The report was adopted.

Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Forwood, of Illinois Conference, Dr. J. Gordon Howard, director of Young People's Work and Rev. Tederico Ordinario of the Philippine Islands were introduced. Dr. H. W. Bromley, evangelist of the Southern Methodist Church, who is now interested in prohibition work, was introduced and spoke briefly. He introduced Rev. G. W. Bunton, D.D., who is associated with him in his present enterprise. Ministers traveling in the conference stood and were recognized. All these were voted advisory relations.

It was announced that Miss Vivian Wiseman, member of this conference, is here donating her time to do our secretarial work. The Bishop expressed appreciation for this service.

Rev. J. P. Hendrix read a partial report of the Boundary and Finance Committee. Mr. William C. Reichert, Webb Gilbert, L. G. Ludwick, M. I. Comfort, M. D. Kidwell, J. P. Hendrix, and E. D. Bragg, spoke to this report. The report was adopted.

Rev. George Oliver read the report of the Committee on Candidates for the Ministry. The report was adopted, and by this action the following were admitted to the conference: Robert Ryder, Joseph Quick, and Mrs. Orville Covault.

Ballots were distributed and a vote was cast for conference superintendent.

Rev. C. R. Smith read a partial report of the Committee on Nominations. A motion was carried authorizing this committee to prepare ballots.

Rev. D. E. Gillispie read the report on Publishing Interests. This report was adopted.

Dr. L. C. Weimer spoke on "Publishing Interests." He brought an interesting report of some of the problems of the Publishing House and an appeal for support of the institution.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger presented the book "The Life of A. W. Drury," by his brother Dr. M. R. Drury, and copies were sold.

Rev. J. B. Henry read the report of the tellers. This report showed that Dr. D. T. Gregory was elected superintendent by an almost unanimous vote.

Dr. D. T. Gregory was called to the platform, honored by the spontaneous applause of the group, and asked to speak. He responded with deep feeling, expressing his appreciation of the confidence of the conference, his purpose to serve faithfully, and his sense of the greatness of the task. He asked the former superintendent, Dr. W. T. Frank, and the men who had served as district leaders during the part-time superintendency to stand and paid tribute to them for their work during these years. He challenged the conference to extra effort in the coming year to continue our progress in the payment of our debt.

The conference quartet sang.

Rev. B. F. Lamb, D.D., executive secretary of the Ohio Council of Churches, spoke of the emergency now in Ohio in the effort to prevent the appropriation of public funds for parochial schools. He made appeal for support of candidates known to oppose such appropriations.

Rev. S. E. Rasey read the minutes of the meeting of the Conference Board of Trustees held during the past year. These minutes were approved.

Miss Ella Hamilton read a summary of the minutes of the Conference Council of Administration. This report and the minutes of the council were approved.

A motion was made and carried that the Williamsburg Church of the United Brethren in Christ is hereby declared abandoned, and the Conference Board of Trustees is authorized to sell the same.

We adjourned with prayer by Rev. E. D. Bragg.

TUESDAY EVENING SESSION

Following an organ prelude by Mrs. Alice Rudolph, Dr. W. I. Underwood led in singing "All the Way My Savior Leads Me." Dr. W. I. Underwood presided and introduced Rev. J. D. Niswonder, who read from "The Scripture Sermon," by Dr. S. F. Daugherty. Rev. E. R. Turner led in prayer.

Attorney Fred W. Lammers brought greetings and welcome from the Clifton Church. "Much has happened in the nine years since Miami Conference met here. Edwin Markham said, 'The three needs of man are bread, beauty and brotherhood.' We hope to have for you in these days something of each of these."

Rev. G. C. Dunlop, D.D., president of the Cincinnati Federation of Churches, brought the greetings of united Protestantism. "We are glad to include United Brethren Churches in the united effort of sixteen denominations and three hundred and fourteen churches in the Cincinnati Federation of Churches. In the life and work of these churches there is reason for hope and challenge to work. We live through a time of change. We should carry on into tomorrow in our united work Christian education as exemplified in the week-day schools of religion, social service in sharing with the weak and distressed, renewed effort in the cure of souls and a more cordial and tolerant understanding that will lead toward closer union."

Honorable Russell Wilson, mayor of Cincinnati, brought greetings of the city. "The municipal government has no control over the weather. The weather bureau is a federal function. The more I see of men and women the more I believe in men and women. There is a growth of tolerance, a new efficiency in Christian education, there is a renaissance of preaching. There is every reason for encouragement and hope."

Dr. F. L. Dennis responded to these greetings for the conference. "We United Brethren are happy to be in the united work of Protestantism today. As a denomination we were born in the discovery of a common experience and a common fellowship. We are a composite of several influences. We carry a faith in personal religious experience, as a starting point for a life of service and righteousness and love. We believe in and try to live the reality of the spiritual, the meaningfulness and eternal continuity of life."

The Cincinnati District Choir sang "Unfold, Ye Portals." Rev. Harold S. Brown pronounced the benediction.

After the evening session, the play "Simon, the Leper" was presented to a large and appreciative audience by the dramatic club of the Clifton Church, under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Hartman.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

The conference sang the doxology. Rev. A. J. Furstenberger led in invocation. We sang "Holy, Holy, Holy."

Rev. S. F. Daugherty, D.D., gave from memory the word of the Lord for trying days and reported briefly his joy and sense of victory in his work as evangelist.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke on "A Deep Well." He read John 4:11-16. "There is much of interest and value in a study of the wells of the Bible. Water is a picture of salvation; it is a necessity, free and God given. We are living in eternal life here and now. For this life we have the water of salvation. 'The well is deep.' It will take time and effort if we are to drink of the water of God's truth and love and grace."

The conference quartet sang "Go Through the Gates." Bishop A. R. Clippinger recommended the book, "Evangelism in a Changing World," by Ambrose M. Baily.

The minutes for Tuesday were read and approved. Letters from Mrs. G. T. Powell, Rev. N. L. Linebaugh, and Rev. and Mrs. Orville Covault were read. The secretary was instructed to send a letter to Rev. and Mrs. G. T. Powell, expressing the kind greetings and sympathetic interest of the conference.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger reported the ordination of Rev. Orville Covault, after approval in a postcard vote by the elders of the conference.

Rev. George W. Oliver read the report on the Christian Home. The report was adopted.

Rev. Earl Stockslager read the report on the Christian Sabbath and the report was approved.

Rev. J. Gordon Howard, D.D., spoke on "The Community Task of the Local Church." "The church influence in the community should be a gradual growth. The church ought to be in the community a lighthouse, radiating truth, a power house, generating and releasing the power of God, a block house, defending folks from evil and a shelter house, ministering and identifying itself with human needs."

The conference quartet sang.

In introducing Dr. V. O. Weidler, Bishop A. R. Clippinger paid tribute to the father and great-uncle of Doctor Weidler, who were his pastors when he was a boy. Doctor Weidler spoke on "Laying Foundations for a Christian America." "America is called a military triumph, an economic triumph and a political triumph. We must be more than this. Our political and economic life must be made Christian. The church must have and live heroism, and must use the scientific and factual method. We must face facts, we must have vision and programs and action. We must be positive and not negative. We must give a heroic service that shall lead to sure triumph."

The booklet, "What of the Night?" was presented and copies were sold.

Chaplain W. R. Hughes, founder of Clifton Church, was introduced and spoke of the problems and joys in the days of the beginning of this church. He paid tribute to pastors and people who have maintained and enlarged the work.

Rev. C. W. Snyder read the report of the Auditing Committee and the report was adopted. Revs. C. W. Snyder, C. E. Fryman, and H. G. Clark were excused for funerals.

The conference adjourned and separate meetings were called to nominate delegates to General Conference. Rev. G. P. Campbell led in the closing prayer.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Rev. George P. Campbell led in singing "Showers of Blessings." Rev. Louis Odon read from the second chapter of Ephesians. Rev. Norman D. Bevis led in prayer.

Miss Vivian Wiseman was introduced and sang "Hear My Cry, O Lord." Her selection was heartily applauded.

Ballots were distributed and vote was cast for conference officers,

Section 2. Partial reports were made in the matter of nominations for delegates to General Conference.

We stood and sang "Into My Heart."

Rev. C. E. Ashcraft, D.D., dean of Bonebrake Seminary, spoke on "Jesus' Ideals for Human Relations." He reported an auspicious opening of the Seminary yesterday. He read the Nazareth text and the Parable of the Final Judgment. "In the Nazareth Scripture selection we have the credentials of Christianity. In the last parable we have the issues of judgment and the Christian standard of righteousness. The fundamental reality of life is relationship. The greatest problem is the problem of ethics. Real righteousness is the first demand of Christian living. Position and learning and power and creed do not count. The issues of judgment are simple and profound. The church has become near pagan because it has been dominated by the pagan social order.

"The social ideals of Jesus are based on the fact that we belong to the family of God. We are brothers, we ought to share and bear each other's burdens. We must live to help others to live.

"Jesus taught us to live in cooperation and not in competition. He teaches that the great value is the soul. No man should ever be used as a means but always as an end. Business and industry should not be for dividends but for men. All work should be a sacrament. Serving folks is serving God."

Rev. Robert Copeland read the report of the Committee on Home Missions and Church Erection. The report was adopted.

Dr. V. O. Weidler spoke on "Influences of Social Practice at Home upon Missions Abroad." "Home Missionary churches of our denomination contain three per cent of the membership and during the past year provided thirty per cent of the gain in membership. Our frontiers today are more social than geographic. We have a real gospel for a needy world and our task is to carry that gospel to the world. We must make our nation worthy and fit for that great task. To be fit for this, we must have and live the Christian conception of life and the universe. We are in a great struggle with secularism and materialism and nationalism and profitism. We must see hearts and not dollars, men and not money. Jesus saw faces."

Rev. Ralph Tinsley read the report on Foreign Missions. The report was adopted.

Rev. A. S. Wolfe read the report of the Tellers, in the matter of the ballot for conference officers, and by this report the following were declared elected: Secretary, O. O. Arnold; statistical secretary, M. B. Klepinger; treasurer, C. B. Boda; conference trustees, Fred L. Dennis, W. T. Frank; Otterbein College trustee, J. P. Hendrix; stewardship secretary, O. A. Stutz.

Rev. S. E. Rasey read the report of the Historical Committee.

Rev. Ivory Zimmerman read an historical paper entitled "The United Brethren Church in Cincinnati." In this paper he paid tribute to Mr. W. S. Norris, the layman who counted most in organizing and building United Brethren churches in Cincinnati. On motion the paper was adopted and accepted for publication in the Minutes.

Mr. W. S. Morris was presented and spoke, paying tribute to Dr. L. A. McGrew, one of the founders of United Brethrenism in Cincinnati who was later a martyred missionary in Africa.

The conference adjourned with prayer by Rev. W. J. Fox.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION

Rev. E. L. Smith presided. Dr. W. I. Underwood led in singing "God of our Fathers." Rev. Wm. Comfort read the One Hundred twenty-first Psalm. Rev. Ira Clark led in prayer. Dr. J. Gordon Howard spoke on "Educating Youth in Christian Service." "It makes a great difference in lives and homes and the nation whether or not the church trains a boy or girl in Christian service. The greatest task of any age is to educate youth. The greatest task of the church is to educate in Christian service for youth and for the church, the community, and for God. Christian service is Christian love in action. We serve and we educate as we help youth to find the joy of service. We need to give young people a goal, a faith, methods and materials and opportunities and motive for service."

The Cincinnati District choir sang "All Hail."

Rev. E. H. Nichols read the report on Otterbein College. Rev. W. G. Clippinger, D.D., president of Otterbein College, reported the death of Dr. L. A. Weinland, Ph.D., head of the Chemistry Department of Otterbein College, and the very serious illness of Mr. J. P. West, treasurer of the college.

He then spoke on trends and tendencies among Christian colleges. "One trend is a growing competition with tax supported schools. There is a trend for larger political control of education. State supported schools are accumulating endowment. There is a trend toward pagan and atheistic ideals and standards in ethics and morals. We are at war with unscientific and dangerous ideas and ideals. We can trust science but not some scientists. There is a lack of emphasis on practical Christian living. There is a weakening of conscience and conviction in regard to the place of religion in education. The most dangerous and damaging trend is the growing indifference of the people of the church who are supposed to be the friends of the church related colleges.

"There are encouraging trends, an increased concern and interest in the Christian college, a renewed spirit of hope and effort in planning. There is an increase in enrollment. These point the way to a larger tomorrow."

Rev. J. R. Jacoby led in the closing prayer.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

We sang the Doxology. Rev. L. M. Hohn led in prayer. Dr. W. I. Underwood led in singing "Come, Thou Almighty King."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke on "Anchors of the Soul." "A ship needs anchors as a train needs brakes. Life is a voyage over a sea that is often stormy. A man needs anchors of the soul. Faith in Jesus Christ and the hope that is born of that faith are such anchors. We ride the storm sfaely if Christ is in us the hope of glory."

The quartet sang "My Anchor Holds." Dr. W. T. Frank led in prayer.

Rev. A. B. Condo and Rev. A. W. Ballinger were introduced and by motion were invited to advisory seats. Rev. J. H. Mayne stood and was greeted.

President W. G. Clippinger spoke briefly. "The college has suffered through the shrinking of income from securities and from the loss of income through benevolences. We need your help. Stress Education Day."

Rev. C. R. Smith read the report of the Committee on Nominations, Part 2. The report was approved and ordered printed.

The report of the Committee on Otterbein College was adopted.

Rev. M. I. Comfort read the report of the Reading Course Faculty. Rev. Walter G. Peck who has done unusual work in this Reading Course during the past year stood and was recognized. The report was approved.

Rev. G. W. Duckwall read the report of the Committee on Preachers' Pensions. Dr. D. T. Gregory read a letter from Prof. H. H. Baish which contained a report of the payments from churches in Miami Conference toward the Preacher Pension Fund and a full report of the bureau. Doctor Gregory then made a plea for effort toward providing Preacher Pensions in Miami Conference.

Rev. E. S. Comrey introduced Mrs. Marie Melke of the former First Church of Cincinnati, who read a message from that church and presented to the conference an offering of $227.90 which it is proposed is to be used as the beginning of a Preacher Pension Fund which is as a permanent endowment memorial to the First Church of Cincinnati.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger received the letter and gift in the name of the conference with sincere thanks. Dr. D. T. Gregory presented to the conference the challenge to add to this fund. Slips were distributed and an offering of cash and pledges was received.

A motion was made and carried that we express our appreciation to the friends of the former First Church of Cincinnati and that the report of their committee be included in the Minutes.

The report on Preachers' Pensions was approved.

Dr. C. E. Ashcraft presented Miss Grace Adams and Miss Helen Hansbarger of Wisconsin Conference who are attending Bonebrake Seminary and are open for engagement as evangelistic singers and they sang effectively, "Jesus, Rose of Sharon."

Dr. Fred L. Dennis read the report of the Bonebrake Seminary Commission. Dr. C. E. Ashcraft spoke in regard to the work and needs of the Seminary. "The bonded debt is being paid but there is a growing deficit in current expenses." He pled for faithful loyal effort in Bonebrake Cash Day Offering in every church.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke on the report. "The one problem is securing funds for the current expenses of the Seminary. The Seminary professors are with the pastors, ministers of the church, and they are laborers, who in all justice should be paid their hire. It is our business to do this. Cash Day is the way we can."

Rev. E. D. Bragg and Dr. C. W. Brewbaker also spoke on the report.

The report of the Bonebrake Seminary Commission was approved.

Mrs. V. R. Sibila, president of the Seminary Women's Auxiliary, read a report of the splendid work of that organization. The report was approved.

Dr. Fred L. Dennis presented a resolution of petition to the General Conference. The resolution was adopted.

By motion the present Bonebrake Seminary commission was re-elected for the coming year.

Dr. D. T. Gregory moved the election of the following: D. A. Puderbaugh, A. D. Cook, Clifford Benzing, and O. A. Stutz as a conference committee to continue special effort for a Preachers' Pension Fund during the coming year and to bring a report on Preachers' Pensions to the next session of the conference.

We adjourned with prayer by Rev. Ivan Jenkins.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The conference sang "Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life." Rev. G. W. Kopittke read the Ninetieth Psalm and led in prayer.

Mrs. Clarence Boyer of the Clifton church sang "Lo, on Calvary."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger made remarks in regard to the work of the Stationing Committee.

Rev. Lewis Odon read the report of the Committee on Elders' Orders. Disciplinary questions were asked and answered for the conference by Rev. M. I. Comfort. By vote of the elders, the report was adopted, and by this action, Orville Covault, Clarence E. Kimmel, and W. Bryan Green were granted Elders' Orders and recommended for ordination.

Rev. E. C. Petry read the report of the Committee on Evangelism. Bishop A. R. Clippinger urged full cooperation with the Preaching Mission in America this autumn. The report was adopted.

Rev. Ralph B. Ditmyer expressed thanks for the sympathy, offering and prayers extended at the time of the session of the conference a year ago, and then read the report of the Committee on Pastors' Reports and Records. Bishop A. R. Clippinger commended the conference on the faithful work revealed by this report. The report was adopted.

Rev. Philip Deever read the report of the Committee on Otterbein Home.

Mrs. E. C. Traylor, matron of Otterbein Home, expressed her joy in work with and for the Otterbein Home family, and her purpose to try always to make the Home there what we all want it to be.

Rev. E. C. Traylor, superintendent of Otterbein Home, said it is a home and not an institution. "We are doing our best to operate it as a Christian home, with the standards, relations, attitudes, and ideals of such a home. We aim to have every worker and all conditions in this home counting for Christian life. Increased cost of maintaining buildings and of food call for another good increase in the Christmas offering this year. We are trusting you for it."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke of the continuing expense of the Home and called for loyal support of the Home by every member of the church. The Otterbein Home will ship a barrel of empty cans to any congregation who will undertake to fill them with fruit or vegetables.

Rev. A. B. Condo was introduced and spoke in the interest of the Home. He expressed the earnest desire that "the Home shall be maintained and enlarged and count more and more, not only in serving the physical needs of folks, but in developing Christian character and maintaining Christian standards. Get information out and get funds in."

Mrs. Jesse Haines, vice-president of the Miami Conference Otterbein Home Auxiliary, was introduced and spoke of the work of that organization. The report on Otterbein Home was approved.

Mrs. M. D. Kidwell brought the greetings of the Women's Missionary Association. She gave a brief but interesting survey of the missionary progress of the United Brethren Church across America and out into all the world and called us all to go on together in the tasks and opportunities of tomorrow.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger expressed the appreciation of the conference for the good work of the W. M. A. and called every pastor to encourage this work.

Dr. Walter N. Roberts was appointed to carry the greetings of this conference to the next session of Miami Branch to be held in New Madison next April.

Rev. J. A. Pantle was introduced. He spoke in his usual happy spirit and recited "A House by the Side of the Road" and other poems.

Rev. E. H. Nichols read a report of the Committee on Conference Relations. The report was adopted.

The conference adjourned with prayer by Rev. J. B. Henry.

THURSDAY EVENING SESSION

Dr. D. T. Gregory presided. The conference quartet sang several selections. Dr. D. T. Gregory presented seven copies of the booklet, "When Love Dictates the Tithe," to each church which paid more benevolences this year than last, and to each pastor of such a church a diary and budget booklet.

The Orpheus Male Quartet, of the West Dayton District, under the leadership of Prof. O. E. Gephardt, gave a program of music. Miss Estelle Dennick sang solos as a part of this program, which was very much appreciated by the conference.

Rev. A. S. Wolfe pronounced the benediction.

FRIDAY MORNING SESSION

The conference sang the Doxology and Bishop A. R. Clippinger led in the invocation. Rev. G. P. Campbell led in singing "Wonderful Words of Life." Rev. W. H. Sinks read Scripture selections related to the thought of faithfulness. Rev. J. Frank Royer led in prayer.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke on "Contentment." He read several appropriate verses of Scripture. "Paul said much of contentment in his later letters. Contentment is a Christian grace. It is one of the arts of fine living. Life is not a smooth stream or a continuing song. Life is uneven. It has its ups and downs. There are mountains and ravines. Some folks make the best of things. They have learned how to be content. Life depends more on heart than on circumstances. We will live more and serve more successfully as we learn to live with a true Christian spirit of contentment."

Dr. S. F. Daugherty led in prayer. The roll was called and ministers recorded their consent to travel.

Dr. W. N. Roberts read the report of the Conference Board of Christian Education. He also presented a mimeographed program of activities in the field of Christian Education for the coming year, and schedule and programs for the fall institutes.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger made announcement that the coming Sunday is to be in the new pastoral year, and ministers who are moved are expected to be in their new pulpits this Sunday.

Rev. M. D. Kidwell, conference director of Leadership Training, explained how Leadership Training has been simplified; and how "A" Level Courses can and ought to be given by pastors in each local church. He distributed a pamphlet giving information in regard to the present program of leadership training. He pled that every pastor should put on at least one such course.

Rev. C. W. Brewbaker, D.D., conference director of Christian Education, urged the selection and use of a Board of Christian Education in every local church. He called attention to the new Adult Movement in Christian Education and urged cooperation with this movement. "In evangelistic endeavor let us make a survey of our constituency, secure and use a list of prospects for Christian life and church membership. We can come up to the next conference with a great net gain in membership if we will make faithful and organized effort to find and reach and win folks."

The report of the Board of Christian Education was adopted.

Rev. Harvey G. Clark presented Mr. Fred Lammers who read the report of the Committee on Policy. The report was adopted.

Rev. C. B. Boda reported that the offerings of the three evenings of conference total $45.60.

Rev. M. I. Comfort, on invitation of the Bishop, spoke in a reminiscent strain bringing truths from his life and his experiences in personal evangelism. He told of the difficulties, the joy and the success of this work. He expressed his appreciation of the privileges of the ministry.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger paid tribute to the loyal, faithful services of Reverend Comfort and other veterans of the ministry. He said, "One of the fine experiences of a young minister is to know and appreciate the heroic sacrifices of those who have served through many years in the ministry."

The conference quartet sang.

Dr. S. P. McNaught, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, spoke. "You have been loyal. We appreciate it. There will be 140 local option elections in Ohio this fall. We face insidious and powerful efforts of profiteers in liquor to force wine into every home and to increase consumers and consumption. In Ohio, $13,000,000 was spent for liquor in 1933 and $34,000,000 in 1935. About four million of the thirty-five million went to the state in taxes. Anyone who knows the facts of the relation of the profit in liquor to the cost and the curse of it will be an enemy of the whole business. We must carry on the fight and make every effort through education and legislation to limit this curse."

Doctor McNaught was heartily applauded.

He explained that local option elections may be held in any municipality, in any township outside of a municipality, or in any residence district in a municipality including two or more contiguous precincts.

Rev. L. G. Ludwick read the report of the Committee on Temperance. The report was adopted.

Rev. R. B. Ditmyer reported that all pastors' records are in. We adjourned with prayer by Rev. O. D. Wellbaum.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Mr. D. H. Baggs, member of the United Brethren Church in Lima, Ohio, who is open for engagement as evangelistic singer, with the aid of his trombone, led in a spirited song service and sang "Jesus Rescued Me."

Rev. W. Bryan Green read the first Psalm. Rev. B. F. Petereit led in prayer.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger read a telegram announcing the arrival in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Howard, of Sara Ellen Howard, weight eight pounds. The secretary was asked to send congratulations to Doctor and Mrs. Howard.

Rev. George W. Duckwall read the report of the Conference Registrar. The report was adopted.

Rev. M. B. Klepinger read the report of the Statistical Secretary, with observations and recommendations. The report was approved. A motion was made and carried that the report and observations, comparisons and recommendations be included in the Minutes.

Rev. J. P. Hendrix read the report of the Committee on Boundary and Finance. The report was adopted.

Mr. O. A. Stutz read the report of the Committee on Stewardship, spoke earnestly and briefly on the subject and distributed pamphlets. The report was adopted.

Rev. Ira Clark read the report of the Resolutions Committee. The report was adopted.

Dr. W. I. Underwood expressed the appreciation of the Clifton Church for the help in entertainment, especially in providing lodging by members of other United Brethren churches of Cincinnati and vicinity.

Rev. A. S. Wolfe read the report of the Tellers in the matter of the ballot for conference officers, Section II. The report was adopted and by authority of this ballot the following were declared elected: Registrar, G. W. Duckwall; Historical Committee, S. E. Rasey, W. C. Niswonger; M. I. Comfort; Representative on the Board of the Westerville Training School, H. C. Hahn; Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, J. L. Armstrong, L. G. Ludwick; Evangelistic Commission, Clarence Smith, J. B. Henry, W. T. Frank, L. G. Ludwick, E. C. Petry. Judicial Committee, N. D. Bevis; Members of the Ohio Council of Churches, H. G. Clark, Fred Lammers, Mrs. J. B. Showers; Members of the Board of Christian Education, M. D. Kidwell, Janet Gilbert.

Rev. S. E. Rasey read additional minutes of the Conference Board of Trustees. The report was adopted.

The secretary read the report of the Board of Tellers in the matter of the election of Ministerial and Lay Candidates for the election of General Conference Delegates. The report was adopted. Bishop A. R. Clippinger announced that the next General Conference will convene at Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, May 11, 1937. The Discipline gives full instructions in the matter of electing delegates to this conference.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger named as annual conference tellers for this election: Rev. Ralph Tinsley, Chester Crauder, Prof. E. G. Pumphrey; alternates, Rev. Ira Clark, Hilary Cassel, Prof. H. V. Baer.

The motion was made and carried that 18,000 ballots be printed with names in rotation, each name to be the first on one thousand ballots and these to be thoroughly mixed before distributing.

Rev. J. P. Hendrix invited the conference to come to the Oakwood Church for the next session. Rev. Harvey G. Clark gave a like invitation on behalf of the Oak Street Church. A standing vote was taken and the count was Oakwood 46, Oak Street 41. The 1937 session of the conference will be in the Oakwood Church.

A motion was made and carried that the minutes be approved without reading.

A motion was made and carried that we express our appreciation of the services through this session and through the years, of our Bishop, A. R. Clippinger.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger responded with a sincere expression of thanks and good will. He referred to Bushong, Berger, Shuey, Kilbourne, Mathews, Kurtz, and others who were leaders in this conference a quarter of a century ago. We cannot see the future. May we go forward together in the way of God's will.

Miss Vivian Wiseman sang "Take Time to Be Holy."

The following volunteers, S. F. Daugherty, F. L. Dennis, O. O. Arnold, G. W. Duckwall and then Bishop A. R. Clippinger led in prayer.

The conference sang "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

A motion was made and carried that this conference adjourn "sine die," at the close of the evening service.

FRIDAY EVENING SESSION

The service opened with an organ prelude by Mrs. Alice Rudolph. The congregation stood and sang "Day Is Dying in the West." Rev. Harvey C. Hahn led in the invocation. Rev. Roy D. Miller read the Scripture lesson.

The Cincinnati District Choir sang "Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem." Rev. M. D. Kidwell led in prayer. Bishop A. R. Clippinger announced that by vote of the conference the offering of this session is to be used for payment of relief to aged retired ministers of the conference and their widows; and made appeal for a liberal offering in cash and pledges, payable by January 1, 1937. The offering was taken.

The choir sang "Unfold Ye Portals, Everlasting."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger preached a sermon especially for ministers on the theme "Sifted as Wheat." The text was Luke 22:31. "Peter was sincere and confident when he said, 'I will not desert you.' He did not know himself or the test. Jesus would warn us of tests and dangers ahead. There is no promise of easy life for the Christian. Pastors, you will often find worldly-minded people. You will be tempted to impatience and even anger. You will face the allure of the world. You will be tempted to compromise. You face the danger of shallow formality. There is great danger of discouragement and discontent and even bitterness. There are no easy fields. Many of your plans will be frustrated by some opinionated layman. You will need much patience.

"We have a helper and a friend, one who was crucified but without sin or bitterness. 'Be not discouraged for I will be with you. I pray that thy faith fail not, and when thou art converted strengthen thy brethren.'"

The following were ordained by Bishop A. R. Clippinger, D. T. Gregory and Dr. W. T. Frank assisting: W. Bryan Green, Walter G. Peck, and Clarence E. Kimmel. Certificates of membership in Miami Conference were presented to Robert Ryder and Joseph Quick. Bishop A. R. Clippinger counted 35 ministers in the congregation ordained by him in the last sixteen years. Report was made that the offering of this evening for Ministerial Relief is $135.00 cash and $103.50 pledged, a total of $238.50.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger read the report of the Stationing Committee. The prayer of dismissal was by Rev. L. G. Ludwick.

Reports

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the Bishop, Ministers, Delegates and Fellow-Churchmen of Miami Conference: Greetings.

"Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

Back of us today are 127 years of definite and united endeavor. Ours is a great and glorious heritage as we assemble in another annual session, for choice spirits have become a part of the eternal foundations upon which we are called to build. None of us dare fail or falter without a sense of chagrin in the presence of this company of heavenly witnesses. They have labored, and by their success we are challenged.

Under divine care and guidance we have come through another year. Pastors and people have given themselves to the work in a most commendable way. Advancements have been made, and victories have been won. Some of these will be mentioned in this brief report which, because of its brevity, makes no pretense at a complete and detailed summary of tasks undertaken and goals realized.

For every successful program and for every victorious enterprise, we give thanks to God. To Him be the glory, honor and praise.

Churches and Districts

The conference program has centered in 112 churches during the year. For effective organization and united effort, these have been grouped into seven districts as can be observed in the tabulation sheet of this report.

Benevolences. The General Conference apportioned to us a "benevolence budget." This, in turn, was apportioned (on a five-fold basis of allocation) to the churches of the conference. By means of this "benevolence budget" we unitedly share in the conference, the educational, the evangelistic and the missionary program of the denomination. Through this channel we have been at work for Christ twenty-four hours a day, as it was distributed to our several departments and fields of labor. Let us rejoice in the sharing-privilege that has been ours.

Eleven churches paid their benevolence quotas in full, or more. One year ago we had but six so reported. This is a step toward the ideal for which all should strive.

Seventy-five other churches paid more than they did during the previous year. Here again is a stride in the right direction.

Twenty-six other churches suffered a decrease in their contributions as compared with the former year. We sincerely hope the coming year may witness these, finding it possible to realize gains over the present year's record.

Our final results, when the treasurer closed his books for the year, were as follows:

Eighty-six churches gave the conference a gain of	$3,841.15
Twenty-six churches gave the conference a loss of	1,664.59
Net gain for the conference	$2,176.56

This is 7½ per cent increase over the year 1934-1935, and gives us a total of $31,235.20 paid, or 54½ per cent of our conference quota.

Every district realized a gain over last year's records. North District has three churches in full and all other churches with splendid increases—a fine district record.

Church Debts. Cheviot, Clifton, Middletown, Columbus Avenue, Oakwood and Rosewood have made commendable payments on church debts. Eaton and Southern Hills have completely wiped out their indebtedness and burned the mortgages.

Church Improvements. Germantown, Millville, New Haven, Pleasant Ridge, State Road, Utica, Aley Chapel, Beavertown, High Street, Lagonda, Otterbein (Dayton), Rosewood, Springboro, Oregonia, Xenia, Oak Street, Piqua, Troy Street, Liberty, Miami Chapel, Rossburg, and Waterhouse churches have undergone extensive repairs and improvements.

Fairview is in the process of building a new Bible-school plant at a cost of $40,000, a large part of which already has been raised.

Institutes and Rallies. Under the leadership of our Board of Christian Education, district leaders, Miami Branch of the W. M. A., and Otterbein Guild, fall institutes and spring rallies were conducted throughout the conference. These district gatherings have done much toward informing and inspiring our people concerning the program and work.

Missionary Convention. Middletown Church was host to this annual gathering of women and girls. Hundreds of our leading workers gave themselves to a careful study of objectives and methods to which again they have set themselves in an unselfish and whole-hearted manner.

The united efforts of these women and girls resulted in contributions of $6,916 by the Women's Missionary Association, and $1,434 by the Otterbein Guild.

Parsonages. Belmont, Otterbein (Dayton) and Springboro had extensive repairs on parsonage property. Ft. McKinley dedicated a beautiful and commodious home for the pastor at a cost of $8,000.

Spiritual Life. All through the months we have planned and taught and worshiped with the hope that spiritual fervor and nobler living might be enhanced among our people and in our homes and communities. Week by week we had an average of 12,620 in our Sunday schools and 8,550 in our morning worship.

"Wait for the promise of the Father" is the request of our Lord to his church. This must characterize our services in our desire for spiritual quickening. Let us keep this before us as we teach and worship during 1936-1937.

Winning Souls. "Go ye therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," remains the great commission of Christ to the church. We cannot escape this responsibility. Therefore, in our giving and in our praying, and in our teaching, and in our daily witnessing, and in our worship we should keep ever in mind the primary business of the Christian; namely, winning others to Christ.

Our reports show that we had 1147 conversions during the year, and 1129 received into the church. Let it be our disposition in every devotional period of this annual conference to pray earnestly for far greater achievements along this line, under the guidance and power of the Holy Spirit, during the coming year.

The following tabulation will give other major victories of the year. It reveals that we had an average attendance of resident members in morning worship of 37 per cent; in evening worship, 19 per cent; in Sunday school, 51 per cent of the enrollment.

NOTE—In the figures on finance only even dollars are reported as per pastors' reports

Our Ministers

Eighty-one ministers have served as leaders in the work. Of these, sixteen have been student or part-time pastors, receiving less than the minimum salary as support. No complete record can be made, nor report submitted concerning the detailed labors of these noble workmen. Far more than we ever dream now, these unselfish souls have contributed to the spiritual enrichment of a multitude of souls.

Quarterly Licentiates. Quarterly licenses have been granted or renewed to the following: Herbert Bosey at Otterbein (Dayton), Mrs. Orville Covault at Wagner Chapel, Merrill Landis at Dayton First, Charles Messmer at Newport, Joe Quick at Hamilton Ninth Street, Robert Ryder at Fairview, David C. Woodburn at High Street.

Mrs. Orville Covault and Robert Ryder are recommended by their respective quarterly conferences to this annual conference for annual license.

Resignations and Appointments. Rev. A. C. Mueller resigned the Rossburg Charge in January, and Rev. Paul Frees was appointed to complete the year.

Rev. C. H. O'Brien resigned at Yorkshire in June and Dr. W. T. Frank was assigned to the field.

Rev. Orville Covault resigned at Wagner Chapel in July, and student supplies have completed the year.

Sickness and Sorrow. Critical illness cast its shadow over the homes of G. A. Campbell, G. W. Duckwall, G. T. Powell and Earl Stockslager during the year. May God bless where impaired health continues in any of our homes.

Death came to our ranks and called away Rev. Mrs. Ruth Hemphill, Rev. A. Dunkleberger, Mrs. J. Assel and Rev. A. E. Bittner. To the sorrowing loved ones our hearts reach out in loving and tender sympathy.

Recommendations

1. That our denominational theme for this year be the slogan of our endeavors. It is, "Evangelism through Social Service."

2. That the educational program submitted by our Board of Christian Education have our careful consideration in the work of our churches this year.

3. That our institutes this fall and the rallies next spring have our earnest efforts toward a large attendance. These are vital events in the instructional and promotional work, and should have the ear and eye of every churchman who possibly can be gotten into same.

4. That church night programs and similar methods for instruction and inspiration to our people be given serious thinking and effort in local churches, both this fall and following the Christmas season.

5. That soul winning constantly be kept in the fore of our plans and endeavors. We must be fishers of men if we are to be followers of the Man of Galilee.

6. That Christian Stewardship, as an inseparable part of Christian living, be given its proper place and emphasis in our work.

7. That every charge, employing a full-time pastor, make an earnest effort to pay at least $1,200 and home as a minimum salary.

8. That benevolences—that phase of our program by means of which we become missionaries, educators, world evangelists, and coworkers with Christ in all parts of the earth—have careful and sincere planning for fuller realization in our churches. Toward this the following steps are suggested:

a. A carefully conducted Every Member Canvass or some similar plan for giving our people information concerning our denominational work.

b. An energetic observance of the special periods designated by the General Conference as promotional occasions, with offerings to be applied on the budget quota.

c. Regular monthly remittance by every church to the conference treasurer as our standard.

d. A solidarity-consciousness that will give to every pastor and church a feeling of the urgent need for all of us to do our individual part toward a worthy goal and standard as a conference.

Appreciation

It is with a deep sense of personal inability for the work that varied tasks have been undertaken. Only an ungrateful soul could pass through the atmosphere of fellowship with great and noble spirits and not be profoundly thankful to God. Such has been our experience as contacts have been made in all sections of the conference. To every one, from whom a helping hand and a sympathetic heart have come, the deepest gratitude is hereby expressed.

God has been "our refuge and strength" in all the tasks. Without His care and help, not even the smallest duties could have been undertaken. "To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen."

COUNCIL OF ADMINISTRATION

Summary of Minutes

The board convened on the following dates: September 24, 1935; December 17, 1935; March 12, 1936; June 18, 1936.

Items considered and voted were:

1. That we seek to have every local church receive the fullest possible information and understanding of the church program by way of:

a. Good attendance of church leaders at the fall institutes.

b. Church night or some similar program, suited to local conditions, for definite study and discussion.

c. Use books and leaflets prepared for giving this information to our people. These are "Missions at Home and Abroad," "Worship Pathways," "Christian Youth in Action," "Giving Blesses," "Program Activities."

d. Weekly bulletin announcements and emphasis by pastors.

2. That there be prayerful cooperation of pastors, officials, teachers and all church leaders in promoting the adopted program.

3. That there be the fullest possible observance of "special days" as a help in our work. Fall communion service as suited to local program.

4. That there be definite organization in each local church for Seminary offering and for the Otterbein Home offering at Christmas time. Special committees and special effort by way of giving information and creating interest are absolutely necessary to the success of such endeavors.

5. That there be a monthly remittance by every church toward the benevolent causes of the denomination. Only as we act unitedly and wholly (not partially) can we hope to create a yictorious morale throughout the conference. Every church do its best, large or small, but every church do something.

6. That definite effort be made toward a goal in each district that will help lift our conference to a percentage level with that of the denomination. Our conference percentage last year was 50½. That an advance of 20 per cent be the goal for this year.

7. That Rev. M. B. Klepinger be made assistant to Rev. O. O. Arnold in the Greenville District.

8. That teachers and officers in the Sunday school be tied up more definitely with the whole church program. And that members should be made acquainted with the Discipline and church rules.

9. That church attendance records be published in the Messenger, and the method of reporting church attendance be left to the Publishing Board.

10. That Rev. G. T. Powell be placed on the retired list as per his own request.

11. That Dr. C. W. Brewbaker's name be placed in the Conference Minutes as director of Religious Education, and that he represent the board in the Conference Council.

12. That Miami Conference Council support the Rural Life Conference at Verona, January 23, and that next year the council sponsor the Rural Life Conference and appoint a Rural Church Commission.

13. That we attempt to more fully realize the following objectives:

a. A sustained rally of all our churches.

b. A spiritual quickening or revival of all our people.

c. A broader vision of our tasks committed to our conference.

d. A 20 per cent increase in our budget receipts as a conference.

e. An increased subscription list for the Telescope.

f. An increase in membership as a conference, conserving our folk.

14. That every church give full consideration to and plan for an adequate Christmas offering for the Otterbein Home; district leaders to check on all pastors to ascertain whether they have planned for this item and have ordered material to properly care for same. Some phase of organized endeavor must be followed in order to make it successful.

15. That Men's Day, January 19, be used in a special way for rallying the men of our churches and creating greater interest in the Kingdom work to which we are given.

16. That Christian Endeavor Day, February 9, be made an opportunity for emphasizing the importance of this arm of the church; and that our own college, Otterbein, be placed before our people, and as a worthy cause for our financial aid.

17. That President Clippinger write all the pastors of our conference, it being understood that Miami's Council is behind the president in this matter. And that Doctor Gregory, as superintendent, send a letter reminding the churches of their quotas.

18. That the official delegates to the Westerville Conference be the Conference Board of Christian Education, Conference Trustees, and the group leaders.

19. That the Board of Education determine the quota to the churches for the college appropriation.

20. That the report of the trustees on the sale of Cincinnati First Church be approved by the Council.

21. That the treasurer be instructed to pay the luncheon bill for all present (this in the session on March 12), with the hope that all the members could stay for the entire session.

22. That district leaders be asked to check with the treasurer on benevolences reported from various churches, not yet in, several such instances being noted.

23. That the Rural Life Commission be composed of the following members: the Messenger editor and the district leaders from Greenville, Lewisburg, Middletown, and Cincinnati districts.

24. That the date for the sitting of our annual conference be September 15, and that Reverend Hendricks be instructed to make a statement in the Messenger in regard to the closing of the conference year on August 31, and that pastors continue their work in their respective fields until September 15.

25. That every pastor and church give diligence to the winning of souls to Christ and into the church as we approach Easter and Pentecost.

26. That pastors and churches utilize most fully all special occasions for increasing attendance and creating greater interest in worship. Passion Week, Easter, Young People's Anniversary, Mothers' Day, Pentecost, Children's Day, and similar events afford great opportunity for enhancing our work, if adequately and properly planned for in advance.

27. That we seek to have as nearly a hundred per cent observance of Holy Communion by our churches during Passion Week and again on Pentecost Sunday as may be possible for our conference.

28. That the Miami Branch sessions at Middletown, April 14 and 15, have our fullest support and emphasis toward a large attendance.

29. That a series of spring rallies be promoted for the latter part of April (see report for dates and places of meetings). These to be evening sessions beginning at 7:00 and closing at 9:30 o'clock.

30. That our Summer Training School at Bonebrake Seminary, June 15-19; Westerville Camp, July 6-17; and National Youth Congress, Lakeside, Ohio, July 28-31, all have our united efforts for a large attendance of our young people.

31. That greater diligence be given to cultivating and instructing our people with reference to the vital denomination-wide needs represented in our benevolence budget. That we urgently request, therefore, a. A better knowledge of facts relative to our benevolence interests on the part of pastors and local church leaders.

b. The largest possible delegation of leaders and teachers from every church at our spring rallies, and that our discussion groups for adults, ministers, and young people at these rallies be centered around this much-needed information.

c. Quarterly sessions or congregational assemblies at churches needing such, primarily for giving instruction relative to the vital reach of our benevolence contributions, pointing out the various causes thus supported or jeopardized in proportion to our gifts.

d. If practical, a planned series of messages or a course for every youth at our Summer Training School that will give them a desire to turn back and help build a wider vision of and interest in our denominational program.

e. Promotion of a "Covenant Plan" covering seven or ten weeks or longer, if so desired. It will lift us from our human selfishness and help us to see the worship value in thus honoring God. Churches have experienced increased attendance and contributions through this program.

32. That a meeting of all the ministers of the conference be called for the second day of the Branch Convention in Middletown, this being April 15. Meeting to be called for 1:00 p.m.

33. That time of publication of the Messenger be referred to the Publication Board.

34. That we begin at once (this on June 18) a definite and concerted effort toward reaching the denominational percentage average as our minimum goal. This is 56 per cent.

35. That a kindly personal letter from the Bishop and superintendent be sent to all the congregations regarding our combined effort for a more favorable record.

36. That there be a conference by the district leader with the pastors of his district for planning toward a proper endeavor in his district toward a proper showing by his district in this objective.

37. That our goal for June be $2750, the same amount for July, and that $4600 be our goal for August.

38. That the Chair appoint a committee—not to exceed three—to meet the Committee from the Otterbein Home (this committee is composed of Doctors Showers and Weimer and Mr. W. H. Cassel) to go into the matter regarding the parsonage at the Home; this joint committee to put into writing some of the factors entering into this situation, and report back to the annual conference.

39. That Rev. M. D. Kidwell's report (see report) of the Summer Training School then in session (June 18) be adopted with high commendation.

40. That we as a Council favor the placing of tents on the campus providing for a larger attendance in the Training School, if the Seminary Board gives permission for placing of same.

41. That Mrs. Showers' report from the Branch W. M. A. be adopted.

This report comprehends the following: (1) That the dates for our fall institutes begin September 29 and close on October 9. (2) That the conference cooperate with the W. M. A. by using in its Sunday schools "Partners in World Service." (3) That the women of the Branch want to cooperate in the whole church program.

42. That the conference books close on Friday, September 4.

E. F. HAMILTON, Secretary

CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Summary of Minutes

The following motions were adopted by the Conference Board of Trustees during the conference year, 1935-1936.

It was moved, supported, and voted that the sum of $75.00 be given to the Conference Board of Christian Education.

That the Board of Trustees ask the appropriation committee of the Boundary and Finance Committee to make the Trustees' appropriation for the coming year $800 instead of $1000.

That the treasurer be authorized to use, out of the Trustees' Fund, an amount, not to exceed $308 to apply on other appropriations.

That D. T. Gregory, as superintendent of the conference, request E. L. Smith, leader of Cincinnati District, to call a meeting of the Quarterly Conference of the First Church of Cincinnati for the evening of September 30, 1935, at which time the Bishop and Conference Superintendent are to be present. The object of this meeting to be talked over with the officials of the local church this matter concerning the disposition of the property.

That an appropriation of $200.00 be made to Rev. G. T. Powell from the Trustees' Fund, and that the amount be paid on the pro rata basis.

That the Board of Trustees accept the offer of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, made through Rev. J. B. Foster, superintendent of the Cumberland Church in Ohio, for the United Brethren Church and Parsonage in Williamsburg, Ohio, for a consideration of $500.00 in cash and the assuming of all indebtedness against the property.

Dr. D. T. Gregory was authorized to communicate this action to Rev. J. B. Foster.

Dr. Gregory, as Conference Superintendent, authorized Reverend E. L. Smith, as district leader of the Cincinnati District, to call a Quarterly Conference at Williamsburg for the purpose of making proper adjustments.

That the asking price for the property of the First United Brethren Church of Cincinnati be $12,000 and that E. S. Comrey be appointed a negotiating agent to find a purchaser for the property.

That A. Glen O'Dell be granted a salary of $200.00 as pastor of Bloom Rose Church, and that the amount needed to make up this amount be taken from the Trustees' Fund.

That the Trustees appropriate $25.00 from the Trustees' Fund to promote a revival in the Yorkshire Church, and that Rev. W. T. Frank be asked to hold the revival.

The President and Secretary were authorized to sign tentative agreement placing in the hands of J. E. Cunningham and his company the sale of the property of First Church of the United Brethren in Christ, in Cincinnati, located at Baymiller and Clinton Streets, for the sum of $6,750.00 in cash; the Board of Trustees of Miami Conference to pay the assessments due in December 1935, and the purchaser agreeing to assume all assessments against the property after that time.

That we accept the offer of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of $572.50 for the Williamsburg Church and parsonage property, $72.50 to be paid by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church to the Bloom Rose United Brethren Church for its equity in the parsonage property, and that W. I. Underwood, as a representative of the Conference Board of Trustees, and E. L. Smith be appointed to close the deal, to the effect that the Cumberland Presbyterian Church be required to pay the sum of $72.50 to the Bloom Rose Church at once, and deposit the sum of $500.00 in the bank at Batavia, Ohio; and that the Miami Conference Board of Trustees agree to deposit the deed to the property in the same bank until after the next session of the Miami Conference of the United Brethren Church.

That the costs incident to the sale of the Williamsburg Church and parsonage property, amounting to $11.35, be paid.

That since E. S. Comrey, pastor of First and Second United Brethren Churches of Cincinnati stands to lose in salary by the closing of First Church, that $100.00 be paid to him out of the selling price of the property; and that the Benevolences of First Church be paid in full for the year, also out of the selling price of the property.

C. B. Boda, Conference Treasurer, was authorized to pay the expenses of the members of the Board for this session.

That W. I. Underwood, E. L. Smith, and E. S. Comrey be authorized to close the deal incident to the sale of the First Church property of Cincinnati.

That W. I. Underwood, E. L. Smith, Fred Lammers be appointed a committee, by the Conference Board of Trustees, to submit the contract between the Conference Board of Trustees and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the sale of the Williamsburg Church and parsonage property, to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for final ratification.

That the Board of Trustees ask the six churches of Cincinnati, designated to benefit by the sale of the First Church property, to submit a statement of their indebtedness; and that Second Church be asked to submit a statement of its proposed improvements, before a distribution of funds accruing from the sale of the First Church property, be made.

The President and Secretary of the Board of Trustees of Miami Conference were authorized to sign the contract for the sale of the property of the First Church of the United Brethren in Christ in Cincinnati, Baymiller and Clinton Streets, according to the terms stated in the minutes of the Board of Trustees of Miami Conference under date of December 5, 1935.

That the conference Board of Trustees require of the Board of Trustees of the purchasers of the property of the First United Brethren Church of Cincinnati, Ohio, Clinton and Baymiller Streets, that they deposit 25% of the purchase price in escrow before they be allowed to take possession; and if they should comply with this condition they be granted admittance to the church on January 1, 1936.

W. I. Underwood, E. L. Smith, and Fred Lammers were authorized to take the necessary court action incident to the selling of the Williamsburg Church and parsonage property, and submit the contract to the Conference Board of Trusees for signature.

That the Board of Trustees of Miami Conference agree to grant the request of the Lutheran Federation of Cincinnati, Ohio, for a readvertising of the property of the First United Brethren Church of Cincinnati, Clinton and Baymiller Streets and that separate deeds for church and parsonage property be made on condition that the Lutheran League pay all costs incident thereto, including attorney's fee.

That the Conference Trustees approve the plans and financial program as submitted by the Board of Trustees of the Fairview Church for the building of a three story educational plant, 50 by 80, construction as per specification; mortgage debt not to exceed $15,000.

That the treasurer, C. B. Boda, be authorized to pay traveling expense of the trustees to this meeting.

That the basis of distribution worked out by Superintendent Gregory and Bishop Clippinger be adopted, which is as follows:

The division was studied from the standpoint of each local church debt as related to the amount to be distributed; also on the basis of benevolence percentage contributions during the quadrennium; also with a priority claim in favor of Cincinnati Second Church; and further with an extra gift of $100.00 to Clifton Church in recognition of attorney services rendered by Mr. Fred W. Lammers who declined any personal remuneration for the same.

After the above bases of consideration the amount of $5,910.20 was distributed as follows:

Second Church	$1,150.00
Cheviot Church	1,360.00
Clifton Church	1.550.00
Mathews Memorial Church	1,000.00
Norris Memorial Church	550.00
Willey Memorial Church	300.00
For postage costs	.20
Total	$5,910.20

The conference treasurer was requested and authorized to retain the amounts allotted to Second Church and Mathews Memorial until such time as the Bishop and Conference Trustees can meet with these congregations for a study of future development.

That all funds received from the above sum be sacredly held for, and applied by each church on the building debt of said congregation; they are not to be applied in any sense of the word on current or similar obligations.

That a copy of this allotment, and the resolutions pertaining thereto be sent by the treasurer with the checks, to each of the six churches.

That the Board of Trustees request the conference to declare the Williamsburg Church and parsonage abandoned property.

That the Conference Trustees request the Conference Treasurer to turn over to the Second church of Cincinnati the $1150 accruing to this congregation from the sale of Cincinnati First Church, to be used in the repair of the Second Church building.

In view of the fact that the Hartford Street Church in Dayton, Ohio, is laboring under an embarrassing debt, and in view of changing conditions in the community, it was moved, supported, and voted that the conference Trustees give that church $50.00 per month on a $300.00 per month program; provided however that the said $50.00 per month be paid on a pro rata basis in keeping with the percentage of the remaining $250.00 per month raised by the church, (this equals one dollar paid by the trustees for every five dollars raised by the church), the fifty dollars per month paid by the trustees to be paid by the Conference Treasurer directly to the Building and Loan.

That the Conference Trustees express their appreciation to Rev. A. W. Ballinger of the Otterbein Home for his communication concerning a possible opening for a United Brethren Church in Lebanon, Ohio; and that the Conference Superintendent appoint a committee of two to act with himself to look into the matter and to report at the next board meeting.

The Conference Superintendent appointed Rev. I. M. Hohn and Prof. D. A. Puderbaugh on his committee.

S. E. RASEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The principal activities of the Conference Board of Christian Education consist of three types of effort: (a) Providing and promoting a suggested program of activities for the local churches of the conference; (b) promoting in the conference the denomination program of Christian Education; (c) providing such agencies as rallies, conventions and training schools for education, and inspiration.

We wish to express our appreciation of our directors who have promoted this work through the year, of the pastors who have so splendidly cooperated, and of the churches and their lay workers whose needs and interests we have sought to serve.

Dr. C. W. Brewbaker has served as our general director; Rev. Roy D. Miller, adult director; Rev. Harvey C. Hahn, director of Youth Work; Mrs. Will Hopkins, director of Children's Work; and Rev. M. D. Kidwell, director of Leadership Training. We regret to report that because of her long illness Mrs. Will Hopkins finds it imperative to resign as director of Children's Work. She has served long and efficiently in this capacity. She has been an ardent enthusiast in the work. She has our deepest appreciation for her valued help through these many years of unselfish service.

For the sake of brevity we mention here only some of the high points of the year. The fall and spring rallies were promoted as usual. The Adult Convention was held at Miamisburg, January 30. The program theme, centered on "Worship," proved to be both helpful and inspiring. Our adult director and his committee deserve much credit for the success of this convention.

A summary of the activities of the Youth Division of our work may be well set forth in the following summary of the director's own efforts:

"Vigorously promoted and worked in the spring and fall rallies. Spoke in 14 C. E. Societies, 9 Young People's Departments of Sunday School, 7 Adult Departments of Sunday Schools, 14 Father-Son Banquets, 31 Youth Banquets, conducted 11 campfires, spoke in 7 churches on Young People's Evangelistic Night, conducted 13 consecration services, taught in 5 leadership training schools, contributed numerous articles to our church periodicals, and served as acting executive secretary of the Ohio C. E. Union."

This department has sent out more than 2500 pieces of mail for youth work during the year.

Perhaps the most creative work done by our director of Children's Work has been that connected with her work as a personal counsellor with children's workers. She has made these contacts through the rallies, the leadership training school and the children's workers' convention at Bonebrake, as well as through intermittent contacts in personal conference and through the mail. No one can estimate the high value of the humble and glad serve Mrs. Hopkins has rendered our children's workers.

One of the high points of our year's work was the Leadership Training School at Bonebrake. There were 8 courses offered; 110 First Series and 124 Second Series Credits issued, making a total of 234 credits; there were 212 enrolled. The school was perhaps the most efficiently and satisfactorily conducted of any schools we have yet had. For this fact much credit is due Rev. M. D. Kidwell, the dean.

Our conference also cooperates in the Otterbein Leadership school and had a good representation of delegates there.

We earnestly desire and strongly urge all the churches of the conference to share in these schools by sending at least one delegate from their church. Of the 111 churches of the conference, 59 were represented at Bonebrake while 52 were not.

We commend and chronicle the splendid work that is done in leadership training in the local churches of the conference, such as, regular and planned meetings of teachers and officers, conducting classes of leadership training, and cooperating in community training schools.

There are other activities which have been omitted for the sake of brevity. We wish to commend every sincere effort in Christian Education.

We submit herewith our adopted program of activities in Christian Education for 1936-1937. This was worked out by our Board and adopted as our Conference Program of Activities. We do not expect any church to be able to carry out all of these activities just as they are indicated. These are suggested lines of action for local churches. We trust this sheet will be a helpful guide to pastors and church workers.

As a Board we adopted the following asking budget for the year 1936-1937:

Budget for 1936-1937 (Conference Year)

Printing	$ 60.00
Postage	50.00
Travel	100.00
Supplies	20.00

Westerville Camp subsidy	$ 50.00
Bonebrake Camp subsidy	75.00
Conventions	35.00
Permanent equipment for Bonebrake Camp	75.00
Miscellaneous	35.00
	$500.00

We are requesting an appropriation of the above amount ($500) for the coming conference year.

With gratitude to God our Father for his mercies and for your hearty cooperation and good will, and with a deepened conviction of the necessity of putting forth all our best efforts in helping our people to grow into ever-enlarging Christ-likeness, this report is submitted.

WALTER N. ROBERTS

MIAMI CONFERENCE PROGRAM OF ACTIVITIES IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION, 1936-1937

Theme: Evangelism Through Christian Social Service. Slogan: An educational evangelism and an evangelistic education. General Emphases:

1. Evangelism: Cooperation with the Preaching Mission.
2. Worship: Adequate provision for meaningful church worship for children, and young people as well as for adults. (Thus: The simplified sermon and the family pew; the Junior Sermon; the Junior Church.)

2. Major on denominational Oratorical Contest.
3. Support and observe Education Day and Young People's Anniversary Day.
4. Give closer supervision to Intermediate Department of the church and strive to organize Intermediate C. E. Societies where needed in churches of the conferences.
5. Promote Temperance by having classes using text "Alcohol and My Generation" by Davis, Singer and Thomas.
6. Promote Peace by conducting Prince of Peace Declamation Contest and by using "Men Conquer Guns" by Walter Van Kirk.
7. As a substitute for a series of lessons in Sunday School or C. E. topics, conduct a class in Stewardship using "The Way to the Best" by Robert Anderson.
8. Continued study and emphasis on missions.

Children's Department Emphases

1. Each church to have a director of children's work.
2. Have delegates at children's workers' rallies and summer camps.

3. Cooperate with the week day school of religion and conduct a vacation church school.
4. Provide temperance education for children.
5. Observe a world day of prayer for and by children.
6. Conduct catechetical classes for older juniors and decision day in the Sunday School.
7. Observe the Glad Chest and other means of missionary education.

Leadership Training Emphases

1. Have at least one teacher or officer in each department to take a course or more in leadership training.
2. Send at least one delegate from the church to the Conference Training School at Bonebrake and at least one to the Otterbein Camp.
3. Encourage leaders to read helpful books bearing on their tasks.
4. Start a church school library.
5. Organize the Board of Christian Education in the local church.
6. Pastors conduct "A" level courses of leadership training.

(Consult the "Miami Messenger" each month for full explanations of these items.)

REPORT OF BONEBRAKE SEMINARY COMMISSION

The story of Bonebrake Theological Seminary is well known in the Miami Conference. This recruiting and training agency has poured a wealth of consecrated life into the leadership channels of our conference.

Since the General Conference of 1933 made provisions to liquidate the mortgage indebtedness on the Seminary, the greatest financial need of the Seminary at present is for a more adequate income for current operating expenses. Salaries, interest on annuity gifts, and interest on borrowed money are sadly in arrears.

The urgent need of the Seminary is for a minimum increase of $10,000 for current operating expenses. Perhaps Miami Conference can provide a portion of this sum.

For several years past we have set a goal of a Cash Day offering for Bonebrake Seminary of an amount equal to ten per cent of the benevolence quota. As a conference we actually raised and paid to the Seminary last year an amount equal to 9.1% of the conference benevolence quota. By districts the record reads:

I. Cincinnati—3.5%. No church reached ten per cent. Two reported nothing, viz: Mt. Healthy and Zion.

II. Middletown—3%. Two churches reached the goal, viz: Hamilton First, 10.5%; Union Chapel, 25%. (Harrison and Rockdale report nothing.)

III. East Dayton—4%. Oakwood alone reached the goal. (Oregonia reported nothing.)

IV. North Dayton—5.5%. Beardshear and Oak Street reached 10%. Every church in the district took an offering.

V. West Dayton—21%. Every church is represented with an offering. Euclid Avenue, Fairview, First Church, Ft. McKinley, Residence Park, and Southern Hills surpassed the goal.

VI. Lewisburg—4.5%. Phillipsburg raised 13%. (Eaton and West Manchester failed to report.)

VII. Greenville—4.2%. New Madison and Savona reached the goal. (Abbottsville paid nothing.)

It will be observed that eight churches failed to respond.

Your committee recommends for the ensuing year that:

1. We pledge to president A. T. Howard and his associates on the faculty our hearty cooperation through prayer and through contributions.

2. October 11 or 18 be observed as Bonebrake Seminary Day, with a well arranged and publicized presentation of the work of this institution.

3. The Cash Day goal for each church remains an amount equal to ten per cent of the benevolence quota of the church.

Signed—FRED L. DENNIS.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY OF THE BONEBRAKE SEMINARY

In presenting the report of the Women's Auxiliary, it might well be termed a report of thanksgiving. Last year a denominational wide Extension Program was carried on. The work of the Auxiliary was given in each conference. Response came from many. With the increased membership came more funds with which more improvements could be made in the dormitory. The Dayton group was privileged to serve meals during the Leadership Training School when it convened in June this year at Bonebrake. During that period 2567 meals were planned, prepared and served. This netted a sum of $352.50 or a profit of 13 cents per meal. As there were no bills for paid help among the women, one can readily see why so much profit per meal. The workers each pay for their meals. This activity surely emphasizes the worth of cooperation. The Dayton women are a wonderful group of workers. They welcomed the new members from other areas and believe they will enjoy working for the interest of Bonebrake Dormitory.

The present membership includes 1923 individuals and 35 groups. Improvements made and paid for during 1936 include the painting of six double suites and one single suite and the ceiling of the matron's quarters, drapes on the court side of the building which required 309 yards of material and a new stove for the kitchen.

May we count on the members of Miami Conference to help carry on the work of the Women's Auxiliary. The dues are small and within the reach of all.

Thank you.

MRS. V. R. SIBILA, President.

REPORT OF EFFORT FOR MINISTERIAL PENSION AT FIRST CHURCH, CINCINNATI

To Conference Board; Bishop A. R. Clippinger; Pastors, Members, Friends and Coworkers of the church:

On Sunday, December 18, 1935, members and friends gathered at the little church at Clinton and Baymiller Streets, Cincinnati, Ohio, to hear the last sermon preached in that church by Bishop A. R. Clippinger, which touched all hearts and gave courage to work in other fields.

Ending the service the Bishop asked if we would try to lay a foundation for a Ministerial Pension Fund in memorial of the First United Brethren Church of Cincinnati. Bishop A. R. Clippinger and Rev. E. S. Comrey helped to appoint committees for the same.

A collection in cash and pledges was made for this fund. All pledges made that day have been paid in full. Many thanks to all. May God so bless this fund that it may increase an hundred fold.

Cash collected December 18, 1935	$10.00
Pledges paid since that time	$217.00
Accrued Interest	.90
Fund turned over to conference treasurer for this purpose	$227.90

STATISTICAL COMPARISONS AND OBSERVATIONS

Our church membership remains exactly the same as one year ago. The gain actually made has been offset by the abandonment of the Williamsburg Church which one year ago reported 102 members.

The fact that no expulsions are reported may indicate either laxity in enforcing the Discipline or more long-suffering on the part of official boards.

Contributing members increased 1402. There were 397 less conversions than in 1925.

Senior, Intermediate and Junior Societies number nine less and show a net membership loss of 133. There are five less missionary societies and Otterbein Guilds than a year ago, and 32 less members.

There are five less Ladies' Aid Societies and 191 less members than a year ago; also three less brotherhoods and 62 less members. Sunday-school enrollment shows an increase of 1756, but a net loss in average attendance of 1430.

The total amount of United Brethren literature used shows a slight increase over last year with a corresponding decrease in other literature used.

Salary contracts are $16,545 ahead of a year ago with $2,647 more being paid on salaries. Twelve churches failed to pay pastors' salaries in full while eight over-paid.

Increased payments over one year ago are as follows: Church repairs, $5,297; church property and interest, $6,332; total benevolences, $2,273; total for all purposes $25,343.

On the whole, the report shows a slight numerical loss during the past twelve months, while financially the conference is in better condition.

Suggestions for Reports

Money raised for a church or parsonage building fund but not yet expended should be reported as a "balance in the treasury" and not "paid for new church or new parsonage."

Money paid on the previous year's salary should be reported as a part of "local church expense," and not "paid on church debt."

Commendation is due the great majority of pastors for promptness in sending in reports. All but two arrived in ample time for the records. The two delayed reports came from student pastors who probably did not realize the importance of promptness.

M. B. KLEPINGER, Statistical Secretary.

PASTORS' RECORDS

We, your Committee on Pastors' Records and Reports, have carefully examined and audited each successor's record.

We recommend the ministers for their cooperation in presenting neat and well prepared records and reports to conference; in five districts of our conference the records balanced exactly with the membership reported on the annual report to our statistical secretary, Reverend Klepinger. All the records save four have the address of members listed, and all but four have the names numbered. Final audit shows twenty-four fewer names listed in the entire conference than reported to the statistical secretary. The following records were not in the hands of the committee: Utica, Bloom Rose and Moore's Fork.

The committee recommends:

1—That all pastors use the Successors' Records prescribed by the Discipline.

2—That all names be numbered consecutively.

3—That the address of each member be listed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS

Rev. W. Frederick Miller requests a letter of honorable dismissal from the conference. We recommend that the request be granted.

We have the transfer of Rev. Raymond S. Daniel of Minnesota Conference, but whose church membership is in our Oak Street Church of Dayton. Mr. Daniel is a missionary of the American Sunday School Union and is working in Kentucky. We recommend that his transfer be received by this conference, as per his request.

Rev. H. H. Miller, a member of our Pennsylvania Conference, appeared before us and requested that he might be received into this conference subject to his transfer. We recommend that his request be granted.

Rev. S. F. Daugherty and Rev. J. A. Robinson, evangelists-at-large, each request that their present relationship be continued. We recommend that their requests be granted.

We have no word from Rev. C. E. Hetzler, evangelist-at-large, but recommend that he be continued in this relationship.

BISHOP A. R. CLIPPINGER

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS

Rev. Mrs. Ruth Hemphill

Mrs. Ruth Hemphill was a woman of sterling Christian character, pious, devoted and consecrated to Christian service. In the service of Jesus Christ she was militant, courageous, and aggressive. In the ministry of the Word she was kind, loving and sympathetic.

Sister Hemphill was loved and revered by her many friends in Miami Conference. In the conference she rendered a noble service for God and the church. A lasting memorial to her name, work and memory is the New Madison church which was erected during her pastorate from 1899 to 1901.

She was a woman of unusual strength of mind and force of character, and was always interested in all matters pertaining to the church and public concern.

Her strong Christian faith was always secure, it gave her perfect satisfaction in her declining years, as she spent them in a private home for old people at New Madison, Ohio. It was here on September 6, 1935 that the lamp of life burned out and the arms of eternal love gathered her into the Father's House after a very fruitful and useful life.

One sister, other near relations and many friends mourn her demise. Appropriate funeral services were held in the Union City church with the pastor, Rev. L. G. Ludwick, in charge, assisted by Dr. W. T. Frank with Dr. W. I. Underwood bringing a very comforting message.

Rev. Allen Dunkleberger

Rev. Allen Dunkleberger, son of Benjamin and Catherine Dunkleberger, was born in Freeburg, Pa., October 27, 1858, and departed this life in Dayton, Ohio, January 1, 1936, after a long and useful life of seventy-eight years, two months and twenty-four days.

He was united in marriage August 26, 1884 to Miss Anna Heffelfinger, of New Cumberland, Pa. To this happy union were born five children; two daughters, Mary and Maude, and three sons, Milton, Stanley, and Byron. The wife and mother passed away May 12, 1905 while he was living at Union City, Ohio. In 1907 he married Laura Bowman. To this union was born one daughter, Grace. The second wife died while he was pastor of the Willey Memorial Church, Cincinnati, Ohio.

He was about fourteen years of age when he began to learn the printer's trade at Selingsgrove, Pa. On the completion of his apprenticeship he journied west, continuing his preparation as a printer in the cities of Dayton, Ohio; Indianapolis, Indiana, and Kansas City, Mo. In the latter city he became associated with a firm that published a religious publication, which made a deep and lasting impression upon him. Here he decided upon his life's work—that of becoming a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

He became a Christian at the age of sixteen years and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Two years later he returned to his home town and joined the United Brethren Church. He received his annual conference license February 22, 1879, at Spring Garden, Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania, from Bishop J. J. Glossbrenner, the presiding officer of the conference. Two years after this he attended Lebanon Valley College for one year. The next two years were spent in active ministerial work, following which he entered Union Biblical Seminary, at Dayton, Ohio from which he graduated May 6, 1885. While a student in the Seminary he taught a Sunday School class of boys in the old Summit Street United Brethren Church of which Orville and Wilbur Wright were members.

Reverend Dunkleberger's early ministry was in the East German and Pennsylvania Conference. After his graduation from the Seminary he transferred to the Miami Conference where he preached for thirty-eight years as a pastor and evangelist. He was most successful in the evangelistic field. He served as pastor to the following charges; Miltonville, Oakland, New Haven, Eaton, Ithaca, Miami Chappel, Willey Memorial and Columbus Avenue, Springfield, Ohio. He was conference evangelist in 1914-1915. In this position he was very successful. He won many souls to Jesus Christ and received a large number of them into the fellowship of the church. During his entire ministry he preached nearly 2000 funerals, and married about 1000 couples.

Following his retirement from the active ministry he became associated with his son in business. He was a director and ardent employe of the American Display Co., Dayton, Ohio. While working here he did much pulpit work in his own church and other denominations.

Reverend Dunkleberger was a faithful pastor, a strong minister, a devoted churchman, a respected citizen, and a good father.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

Mrs. Josephine Assel

Mrs. Josephine Assel, wife of Rev. John Assel, a beloved and retired minister of the Old German Conference, was born at Dry Ridge, Ohio, December 27, 1850, and departed this life April 11, 1936, after a long, beautiful life of eighty-five years, three months and fifteen days.

On May 28, 1878 she was united in holy marriage to Rev. John Assel. To this happy union five children were born; two of them have preceded their mother in death.

Mrs. Assel was a willing, untiring, sacrificing toiler in the church. She gave fifty-four years of time and service with her husband in the Ohio German Conference of the United Brethren Church in Christ. She served for thirty-six years as treasurer of the Sister Mission of the Ohio German Conference. She was enthusiastic about missions in the local church and in the church at large.

The last thirteen years of her life were spent in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was a member of the Second Church congregation. She was faithful in her attendance until two weeks before her death. She never ceased, however weary, to lend her help to a needy and worthy cause.

She was a most active pastor's wife, a devoted companion, a loving mother, and a good Christian woman.

Appropriate funeral services were held in the Second Church, Cincinnati, with the pastor, Rev. E. S. Comrey, in charge, assisted by Rev. M. D. Kidwell and Rev. W. I. Underwood. Bishop A. R. Clippinger delivered a very helpful and consoling message.

Those surviving are: her devoted companion, Rev. John Assel, two sons, Harry B., of Cleveland, Ohio; and Walter, of Canton, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. Esther J. Lussen, of Cincinnati, Ohio; and six grandchildren.

May the sweet memory of her life be a continued blessing upon all who knew her.

Rev. A. E. Bittner

Rev. A. E. Bittner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bittner, was born July 27, 1883, at Dayton, Ohio. He received his education in the Dayton public schools, Otterbein College and Bonebrake Seminary. He was converted in January, 1902 in the Home Avenue United Brethren Church, which church he later united with. He was a young man of unusual spiritual devotion to religious matters. He received his quarterly conference license February 19, 1903, united with the Miami Conference at Brookville, Ohio, August 17, 1906, and was ordained in May, 1911, following his graduation from the Bonebrake Seminary.

On August 21, 1907 he was married to Miss Ida Recher. To this union were born four daughters.

His ministerial career was a brief one, having served the following charges: as a student supply at Millville, Ohio, in the Miami Conference, in 1909; Continental, in the Sandusky Conference, in 1910; Springboro, Ohio, in the Miami Conference in 1910-1911; and as a regular minister in the Miami Conference he served West Manchester Charge, 1911-1913; Vandalia, 1913-1915 and First Church, Hamilton, 1915-1916. His work, so well begun, was brief because physical disability caused him to relinguish his active ministerial career. This work lay the nearest to his heart. To it he gave his time, talent and energy.

He later became associated with the Cappel Furniture Company, of Dayton, Ohio, with which firm he remained until his last illness. He had been a patient sufferer for more than a year. He submitted to several operations and spent several months in the hospital trying to regain his health. From a physical standpoint he fought a losing battle for he passed away June 13, 1936, after an earthly life of fifty-two years, ten months and sixteen days.

Rev. Bittner was a person of a quiet, retiring disposition of good character and wholesome influences. He was not permitted to continue in the active work as a minister, but he was faithful in his devotion, in the home, the church and his business transactions. As a member of the Fairview Church of Dayton, he was faithful, earnest and devoted.

On Wednesday before his death in the hospital he conducted his last religious service. He held a prayer and song service for the men of his ward. Four days later he passed away.

He is survived by his good wife, his daughters: Mrs. Evelyn Stahl, Mrs. Miriam Bose, Mrs. Lois Baker and Virginia; his parents and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted in the Fairview Church. Rev. W. E. Ward was in charge, assisted by the conference superintendent, Dr. D. T. Gregory.

May the memory of his devoted life be a benediction upon us all.

J. L. ARMSTRONG.

REPORT OF REGISTRAR

1. As conference registrar, I beg to submit the following report:

That there be added to the list of elders upon completion of ordination: Orville Covault, W. B. Green, Clarence Kimmel, Walter G. Peck, and as these brethren have had regular work in the conference for two or more years, I move that they be admitted to the classification of Itinerant Elder.

That there also be added to Itinerant list: H. H. Miller from Pennsylvania Conference and Raymond S. Daniel, from Minnesota Conference.

That Arthur Peden be listed as Editor of "The Parish News" and "The Protestant News," instead of evangelist-at-large.

2. That A. E. Bittner be removed from Local Elder on account of death.

3. That Allen Dunkleberger and Mrs. Ruth Hemphill be removed from list of Retired Elders on account of death.

4. That Orville Covault, W. B. Green, Clarence Kimmel and Walter G. Peck be removed from Annual Conference Licentiates on account of recommendation for ordination.

That Mrs. Gladys Covault, Joseph Quick and Robert Ryder be added to Annual Conference Licentiates on recommendation of Committee on Candidates for the Ministry.

5. That Joseph Quick and Mrs. Gladys Covault be removed from Quarterly Conference Licentiates on account of recommendation to Annual Conference Licentiate.

That Merrill Landis, Dayton, Ohio, First Church; David C. Woodburn, Dayton, Ohio, High Street and Charles Messmer, Newport, be added to Quarterly Conference Licentiates on recommendation of the conference superintendent.

6. That licentiates serving in the conference be given permission to administer the sacraments.

Respectfully submitted,
G. W. DUCKWALL, Registrar.

REPORT ON STEWARDSHIP

Some one has said, "There is no doctrine in the word of God that has been so grievously neglected as the doctrine of Stewardship."

We are, doubtless, all agreed on the above statement but in spite of this, we feel that some gain has been registered along this line the past year.

This has been evidenced not only by the numerous articles appearing in our own church papers, but other religious periodicals as well. Further interest has also been stimulated at our fall and spring district rallies by the unique and masterful presentation of stewardship by Doctor Gregory.

Further emphasis was given the work of Dr. Hough and your secretary who spoke at the morning worship period in some of our churches on tithing, and the covenant plan. In Bishop Clippinger's message preceding the communion services last year on the theme, "Fellowship of the Saints," he said something like this, "We lose much here, because of the lightness in which we participate." So likewise, I say, we as Christians, lose much here because so many of us fail to recognize the relationship of ourselves, and our property to the Kingdom of God. Dr. J. N. Rayzor said, "The burning question that will confront the Christian at the Judgment Seat of Christ will not be, 'Have you committed murder, theft, adultery, or arson?' but rather, 'How have you spent your time and your money?'" God decreed that not less than one-seventh of our time and one-tenth of our income was his.

There is a growing conviction among pastors and laymen to practice the principles of Stewardship.

More churches used the covenant plan last year, through which the members manifested a deeper interest in the payment of church debts, salary raises, as well as meeting their benevolent quotas.

I am told that one of our Ohio conferences has raised its benevolence $5,000 over last year, besides doing many other commendable things.

While our records are not as complete as we would like to have, yet many of our churches in Miami Conference have made very commendable increases in Stewardship, some using the covenant plan.

Let us not be weary in well doing for in due season we shall reap if we faint not.

These books are adopted and recommended by the Board of Christian Education.

"When Love Dictates the Tithe," Blackwood, 10 cents. "He that Giveth," Simpson.

As a supplement we desired to add the following books. U. B. Publishing House—"Giving Blesses," Simpson, 10 cents. Layman Company "Who Owns the World," Alber, $2.50 per 100. "God's Twin Laws," Alber, $3.00 per 100. "Spiritual Basis for the Tithe," $15.00 per 100.

Tabloid tithing truths in bulletin form for five Sundays leading up to Sunday, November 1, which is designated as Stewardship Day.

Respectfully submitted,
O. W. STUTZ, Stewardship Sec'y.

REPORT ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

Bishop Clippinger, ministers, lay delegates and friends of Miami Conference, I consider it an honor to be selected from among your number for the purpose of bringing to this conference a report on publishing interests.

I wish first of all on behalf of Dr. J. B. Showers, our much beloved and efficient publishing agent, to bring to you his personal greetings.

Doctor Showers has asked me to convey to you, good tidings, in regard to the financial status of the Publishing House and Office Building, stating that both are now on a very substantial footing. The plan of reorganization is being carried out to the letter and is working splendidly in the interests of all concerned.

The house is now publishing the best Church Hymnal our denomination has ever had, as many of our ministers and laymen know, who use them in their respective churches.

And our new youth's hymnal, "Exalt His Name" is also becoming more and more popular. The new "Pastor's Companion" prepared by Dr. J. W. Owen, will prove a companion indeed to all who choose to test its merits.

It would be truly gratifying if I could continue this report optimistically without taking cognizance of a deplorable condition which exists in many of our Sunday schools, but a remedy will be found only when we face the facts; therefore let me remind you that because of the depression, many of our schools were forced to curtail much of their valuable Sunday school literature. This curtailment, my friends, has been to the detriment of our boys, girls, and older people. It is high time that our schools realize this and once more, by courageous effort put into the hands of our Sunday school pupils the necessary and available Sunday school literature.

It is needless that I should speak of the good qualities of the Religious Telescope and the Watchword. Their value as sources of information and inspiration to any church or home is indeed paramount.

The United Brethren Publishing House stands ready to serve you and supply your needs as it pertains to religious literature.

Remember our slogan—"BUY U. B."

Respectfully submitted,
Your Committee,
D. E. GILLISPIE.

PREACHERS' PENSION REPORT

In the present status of social security legislation, ministers and some other social groups have little to expect in the way of public aid for their aged.

In our own Pension Plan this year, pensions are being paid on a pro-rata basis at the rate of $1.50 for each year of ordained service up to a maximum of thirty years. Contributory members in good standing receive one hundred dollars additional annually as a maximum. This makes a possible total of one hundred forty-five dollars per year for contributory members and forty-five dollars per year for non-contributory members. Less than one-fourth of our ministers are contributory members.

Our general manager, Professor Baish, asks that churches be encouraged to pay at least one-tenth of their apportionment soon to increase the payments to ministers already retired whose number was two hundred forty-nine this past year.

Certainly these facts should challenge us to provide a place in our general church program for securing a more adequate endowment fund for our Pension Plan.

We, therefore, recommend that Miami Conference urge that our coming General Conference make definite plans toward completing the Endowment Fund at the earliest possible date.

Respectfully submitted,
G. W. DUCKWALL.

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH ERECTION

America's unfinished tasks are the fields in which the Home Mission and Church Erection Board operate. Those of us who are concerned about the danger spots in our western civilization would do well to consider the work which the Home Mission Board does and could do were it adequately supported. A little leaven will leaven the whole lump whether that leaven be good or bad.

If we are concerned about the liquor traffic, a glance will show that most of the drinking places are located where Home Mission Churches ought to be functioning. The same can be said for dance halls, pool rooms, card rooms and other undesirable establishments.

If the threat of communism disturbs us let us remember that social and political radicalism breeds among the disinherited. The communists do not move their Sunday schools out to the lovely residential areas and neglect the slums and boarding house districts—neither must the Christian church if it would help save America.

The problem of race relations looms ever larger and again Home Mission churches should be on the front line working for a practical Christian solution.

The nation's crime bill mounts higher year by year. Yet in districts where a Home Mission project is being carried forward, court records show juvenile delinquency drops rapidly. Police testify that their task becomes much easier as Christian missions bring the ministry of the church to neglected areas.

If we would continue this necessary work we must support our Home Mission Board as never before. Every church should observe Home Mission month and by all means give every member an opportunity to share in the designated offering.

The Board of Home Missions has a series of stereopticon slides. The slides are in excellent condition and the lectures provided are very usable. A new lecture on the Rural Church is now available. A projection machine is rented at a low cost. The use of these lectures will inform and stimulate our membership.

ROBERT COPELAND.

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

The foreign missionary enterprise remains urgent so long as the task committed in the church by The Great Commission is not completed.

The United Brethren Church has done and is doing most commendable work in her several mission fields. Seeds have been sown that fruited into a bountiful harvest of souls; ideals and attitudes have been implanted that today are revolutionizing life in these mission lands; forces for righteousness have been set in motion that shall gather momentum with the passing of the years. The ability of individual leaders to adapt themselves to meet the various needs and situations has brought forth the highest commendation from other denominations.

Yet we dare not rest on past achievements. New challenges and new opportunities confront us today. This glorious task of evangelization in mission lands can be accelerated only as the forces actually at work on the fields and the churches back in the homeland move unitedly toward a common goal. Spiritual and financial support, coupled with a dynamic passion for souls, must be forthcoming from the home base, else the cause will suffer irretrievable losses.

To the end that our forces be united we offer the following recommendations:

1. That our church membership practice intercession for all the missionary forces.
2. That one Sunday each month be observed as Missionary Sunday in all our Sabbath schools, in which the entire missionary program at home and abroad be presented.
3. That each pastor conduct a missionary study class during the year, giving emphasis to the work in Africa.
4. That each church observe Foreign Mission Day the first Sunday in March.
5. That all churches strive to meet their benevolence quotas and thereby insure more effective missionary efforts.

RALPH W. TINSLEY.

REPORT ON OTTERBEIN COLLEGE

The question is being asked, "Is there a real need for the church college in our day?" My answer is "Yes," provided the church college is truly Christian and distinctive. If she is going to imitate the tax supported institutions, stand for the same social practices, the same materialistic attitudes, and be influenced in the same political fashion, then why does she need to exist? But if, on the other hand, she can give our children a haven of purity and clean living, a shelter from the worldliness of a dancing, card playing, gambling, drinking social order, an inspiration toward faith and true religion and unselfish service, and at the same time give a deep and broad education, then I say there is a place for the church college, and no age has needed her more. But I insist there must be no compromise on these vital issues.

The Findings Committee of our conference on education at Otterbein last winter wrote as follows: "We believe that to justify its existence, Otterbein, as a Christian college, should sharply differentiate itself from the type set by the tax supported institutions, which are becoming increasingly utilitarian and materialistic, carrying specialization to an unjustified extreme, and becoming increasingly subject to political control in the interest of the status quo to such an extent that it dangerously limits academic freedom.

"We, therefore, believe that Otterbein as a Christian college should emphasize broad, Christian culture, enabling is students to appraise cultural, ethical and human values, giving proper proportion and perspective to the various phases of life, holding up Christian ideals of personal living and social relationships, and infusing character with the Christian dynamic." I think we can agree that this is a fine statement and that those last words deserve special emphasis, for the college must uphold Christian ideals and infuse character with the Christian dynamic, if it fulfills the mission for which it was founded; discharges its responsibility toward this confused and sinful generation, and gives to our young people the direction and power that they need.

The Otterbein Board of Trustees, at their June meeting, authorized a forward looking five-year program, which is meant to increase interest in the college, to challenge an advance along all lines and to provide a rehabilitation of $250,000, to the end that accumulated deficits and the gymnasium debt may be paid, and that the athletic field may be improved and a stadium provided. The college will solicit our cooperation and help, and we trust will receive it unstintedly. In the meantime, she asks our immediate help in promoting a fine educational day program this year and in securing a generous annual offering, to make up for the heavy loss in income from benevolences and endowment, with which we are all familiar. May we do our best and pray that Otterbein may be true to the ideals and purposes of its founders, and serve this present age in a vital and spiritual manner.

E. H. NICHOLS, Committee.

REPORT ON THE OTTERBEIN HOME

It is because the Otterbein Home is a regularly recognized institution of the United Brethren Church, serving the area of which Miami Conference comprises a part, that this report is an order of business on our program. We are, in this formal way, signifying the fact that we of Miami Conference acknowledge the usefulness of the service rendered by the Home, and we are hereby pledging our continued support to the important work being done there. It would be trite to reiterate the fact that our church needs such an institution. Nor must we have declared or proven to us that the Otterbein Home is and has been contributing definitely in its field to the general program of our church

Thus a statement of this kind becomes a mere formalism, though an important one. It is analogous to any of the innumerable forms mankind has the habit of using as outward expressions of inward determinations of the heart. And as such, it stands in the same danger to which they all are subject, namely, to allow the form to take the place of the determination, rather than to crystallize it and to express it.

Therefore, it becomes our honest and imperative responsibility as individuals and as a conference not to stop with what we say here, but to go on to what needs to be done there. It is true that all our institutions are in need, and that none of them deserves undue preference. Nevertheless, the fact that the Otterbein Home does not enjoy a regular allotment from the benevolence budget, and the fact of the crying needs of the Home, which one has first to have lived there to feel keenly, demand that you and I and all our people do our utmost, not only with words and prayers and well wishes, but with that sacrificial liberality which best expresses to those in need the warmth of a heart of love.

PHILIP O. DEEVER.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CHRISTIAN HOME

The homes of any nation are the moulders of character and life. Above government and above law, their influence reaches into the depths of human personality. The family is the most fundamental social unit, and in it are fashioned the world's future citizens.

There are many types of homes, but in reality there are only two, those with, and those without Christ. It is a proven fact that the men and women who have made the greatest contributions to the human race have been those in whose homes Christ Jesus has always been the great guiding force.

Each one of us therefore ought to constantly strive to make our homes abodes in which the Master delights to dwell that we strive always "to do those things which are pleasing to Him."

Having the true Christian Spirit in our own homes, we shall then be able to set an example to those 'round about us. May God hasten the day when all peoples shall say, "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done."

REPORT ON THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH

"Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy." This divine law has never been repealed. Jesus embodied it in his teaching, spirit, and practice. The Christian Sabbath was set on the first day of the week as a perpetual commemoration of our Lord's resurrection. Our Church, in its Discipline, takes a definite stand on the proper observance of this holy day.

Biblical history appeals strongly for its being kept holy. Whenever the Jewish nation profaned the Sabbath by neglect and commercialism, it was punished. God's favor and spiritual blessings were denied. Invariably, the prophets rebuked its desecration and pleaded a high regard for its sanctity.

Today the Sabbath is being destroyed. A decreasing number is keeping it holy. Materialism is commercializing it. Secularism is profaning it. It is neglected, ignored, and desecrated. An alarming number of even church members not only habitually absent themselves from divine worship but actually paganize the day. The Christian conscience is growing insensitive to its sacredness.

The truth is, however, this day cannot be neglected by a nation, community, or individual with impunity. Natural consequences must follow its desecration. It is made for the physical and spiritual nature of man and he suffers unless it is devoted to recreative rest, public worship, spiritual uplift, and religious service. It is a fundamental institution upon which national, community, and individual security, righteousness, and blessedness rest. It cannot be undermined without peril.

In view of these facts, let us sound no uncertain note as to the function of the Christian Sabbath. Let us seek to secure a high regard for its sanctity and its holy observance. Let us promote a strong worship attendance emphasis. Let us make the preservation of the Lord's day a major objective of the church.

EARL STOCKSLAGER, Committee.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE

In view of the alarming wide increase of the use of intoxicating liquors, both in public and private houses, resulting in a break down of public morals, damage and violence to our youth, and an alarming increase in automobile accidents, we earnestly call the attention of our ministers and laymen to the following suggestions:

First—That we renew our diligence in the preaching of a temperance Gospel and encourage temperance instruction and that such instruction be promoted in all our church schools and that suitable literature be distributed to all our people.

Two—That we cooperate with all legitimate agencies for temperance reform, especially the Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U.

Third—That the growing tendency to resort to local option laws for relieving smaller communities of the drink traffic be given our hearty cooperation.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

We, the Committee on Resolutions, submit the following: Be it resolved that:

1. We express gratitude to God, our Heavenly Father, for His blessings of this year and the privileges and joys of these conference sessions.
2. We express our appreciation to Dr. and Mrs. W. I. Underwood and the members and friends of Clifton Church for their generous hospitality to this conference.
3. We voice our appreciation of the competent leadership of Bishop A. R. Clippinger and our conference superintendent, Dr. D. T. Gregory and his assistants.
4. We give our appreciation for the faithful and cooperative work of Miss Vivian Wiseman, of the First Church, Dayton, as conference stenographer.
5. We express our gratitude for the inspiration brought us by our guest speakers and the platform leaders, and those who have contributed vocal and instrumental music.
6. We, ministers and laymen, give our support to and accept the challenging opportunities as set forth in our conference policy in observance of the special days in the interest of the different enterprises.
7. We give our hearty support to the task of making a warless world by supporting all worthy movements for world peace, temperance and unity among Christ's followers.
8. We pledge our full support to our conference superintendent in carrying out the conference program for the year.
9. We adopt the recommendations as set forth in the report of our conference superintendent.

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

We heartily endorse the plan of evangelism as outlined by the last General Conference.

We recommend the little booklet "What of the Night?" as a guide in our effort to promote "Evangelism" through Christian Social Service.

We also commend to the pastors the plan of the Federated Council of Churches in promoting the eight-day program of the National Preaching Mission, wherever possible.

GENERAL CONFERENCE MEMORIAL FOR BONEBRAKE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

In view of the fact that the Miami Conference has contributed year by year one third of the Bonebrake Seminary Cash Day totals, be it resolved that the Miami Conference, in session assembled, petition the General Conference of 1937 to continue the appropriation of $50,000 annually as a preferred claim, which shall be used exclusively for the reduction of the mortgage debt.

FRED L. DENNIS.

UNITED BRETHREN PIONEERING IN CINCINNATI, OHIO

As the 1936 Conference is being held at the Clifton U. B. Church, one of the three churches Brother W. S. Norris pioneered and established, we should consider the sacrificial work of this energetic layman.

He was a John the Baptist for the U. B. Churches in Cincinnati. Willey Memorial was founded in 1896, Clifton in 1904, and Norris Memorial, 1908. While he was a leader he used his talents of organization in selecting other helpers. Rev. G. P. Macklin, his presiding elder, paid him the compliment of putting more to work for the church than any laymen in his church experience. No one ever heard Brother Norris say, "I did it"; his saying was, "I helped to organize and build," always giving due credit to the laymen and preachers who helped.

As a matter of church history when he went into Cumminsville he found only one United Brethren, Klem Furstenburger, in a population of 20,000. He helped to carry the Sunday School until the Conference of 1896. The Sunday School was organized with thirteen scholars and grew steadily. Previous to this Sunday School, two other denominations had tried to establish a church here but failed. Through the influence of J. C. Burket, presiding elder, the conference appropriated $50 toward rent which was all the cash capital in sight to establish United Brethrenism in Cincinnati. Brother Norris said that the people of Cumminsville prophesied failure. His answer was, that if he started a mercantile business, Norris & Co., it might fail; but he was establishing a business for the Lord & Company with the Lord the senior partner, and it would not fail.

At Clifton he did not find a United Brethren, but much opposition against establishing a church. The opposition was so strong that the lot owner was petitioned not to sell the lot for church use. This aroused the righteous indignation of Brother Norris who said, "If there was any place that needed a church it was Clifton and with God's help it would be done." There were two efforts made. The second one triumphed. The wife of Rev. W. R. Hughes of Miamisburg, raised $50 for a tent. This was used until fall when a tabernacle was erected.

At College Hill a Macedonian call came to Brother Norris who lived at Mt. Airy; from which place he pioneered the three churches in the good old days of the horse and buggy. The College Hill call came through the family of Edward H. Bonnet, the only United Brethren family in College Hill.

While Brother Norris is entitled to due credit for his heroic work in pioneering these churches, he has often told of the sacrificial work of his good wife, Hattie L. Norris, in helping him. Rev. J. L. Swain said of her, "She was the greatest money getter for the church in Miami Conference."

Brother Norris has often said, "It takes grace, grit and greenbacks to establish churches." To this he adds, "I furnished the grit; the Lord the grace and the people the greenbacks."

These few historical statements of the pioneering of Brother Norris have been related to me as his pastor.

As we meet for the second time in Cincinnati as an annual conference, would it not be fitting to show our appreciation and honor to the founder of three of our Cincinnati churches?

First. By endorsing publicly his generous and sacrificial labors, with our hearty thanks.

Second. By placing this report in the Minutes of Miami Conference.

I. E. ZIMMERMAN, pastor

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON POLICY

We purpose as ministers and laymen to study carefully our whole conference program and to work together faithfully, prayerfully, and earnestly to the reaching of the following goal:

Evangelism through Christian Social Service

We recommend a careful study of the booklet prepared by the Board of Administration for this last quadrennial year, "What of the Night?" Thoughtful men will guard themselves against the influence and approval of many radical social and political movements that have sprung up in our own nation. The world is depressed. The church in many places is distraught. The mood which accompanies this state of things is one which is susceptible to all kinds of alluring utopias. The minister in an hour like this must keep a level head and take no path except the one that leads forward to Christ. The aim of evangelism in social service is to develop Christian ideals and attitudes on all social questions and to take part in all helpful, welfare movements in the community.

Personal Evangelism and Revivals

We thoroughly believe in special revival periods and recommend that since it is often difficult to arrange for satisfactory evangelistic help from the outside that the pastors in our conference and in the separate districts be encouraged to assist each other in revival campaigns. That every church set a goal for accessions and at the Fall Rallies each district set a goal for accessions for the year. The Sunday School offers a great field for evangelistic effort. We pledge ourselves to so plan the local church program that through the year an adequate opportunity and appeal may be made to the children and youth of our Sunday School to accept Jesus Christ as their Savior.

That a prospect and prayer list shall be kept and used by each pastor throughout the entire year.

That we make the Easter season a time of decision, of conversion, of renewed consecration, and a fresh sense of companionship with Jesus, and a time of ingathering of new members. This is also a time for special catechetical instruction for all the older juniors, intermediates, and young people.

Christian Education

We recommend that we adopt as our Conference Program of Christian Education the program presented by the Conference Board of Christian Education and adopted by the Council of Administration.

That a more intensive study of stewardship be made in every church in the conference. That the entire church membership be given an opportunity to study together, "When Love Dictates the Tithe."

Finances

That we recommend the Covenant Plan and the use of covenant cards to all of our churches. The promotion of the financial program and the distribution of tithing literature should be in the hands of group leaders who will have no more than ten families to contact at least once each quarter and better still, once each month. Your Policy Committee is thoroughly convinced that the time has arrived in our conference for every pastor to faithfully present to his congregation the principles and practice of Christian Stewardship. The church people of Miami Conference need to be aroused and interested in the support of the general causes of the denomination.

We recommend that every district be asked at the next district rally to set a goal for an increase in benevolence. That every church in the district be made responsible for a definite part of that goal.

That an Every Member Canvass be put on in every church and an earnest effort be made to have every member contribute regularly to the financial support of the church.

That we observe the special days as designated by the General Conference program for promotional purposes, the offerings to be credited to the benevolence budget.

That the conference authorize the treasurer to close the books for this conference year on the Thursday after the last Sunday in August and that the statistical secretary be instructed to make his benevolence item in the minutes conform to the treasurer's record.

The regular monthly remittance of benevolence by every church to the conference treasurer by Thursday noon, following the last Sunday of the month.

That we undertake again the raising of an amount equal to one-tenth of our benevolence quota for Bonebrake Seminary during the week of October 11-18, which will give us a total of $5,570.

That the special literature and the goals for each church on Education Day be distributed to the churches by the Conference Board of Christian Education.

That the conference program committee plan their program next year so as to give an evening over to special recognition of pastors and churches that have reached certain goals in benevolent giving.

That in the monthly reports of the Miami Messenger all churches paying from fifty per cent up to one hundred per cent of their quotas be designated as one star churches, and that churches paying one hundred per cent be designated as two star churches, and that the church reaching these goals each month be printed in bold type.

Conference Rallies

That the Fall Rallies be given the earnest support of both the pastors and laymen. We believe this series of rallies is of great value in starting the conference program in a spirit of enthusiasm, in helpful fellowship, important information and instruction.

That the Conference Council plan for a meeting to be held some time during the year in the city of Dayton for all the ministers and all of our church leaders. The program for the day to be planned by the Council, or a committee appointed by the Council. The program is to be first of all inspirational and spiritual. A careful check up on the progress we are making with the conference program would be helpful.

Reports and Records

That we resolve now to give the most careful attention to all of the quarterly reports. Not only to send our reports on time but to see that they are accurate in every detail. We have heard a great deal about this through the last few years. Let us put an end to all complaining and measure up to the wishes of our conference leaders in this phase of the work.

Cooperation

We recommend the Summer Training School at Westerville and believe that this institution is growing in value to all those who have the privilege of attending.

We shall continue to cooperate with the leaders of the Training School held at the Seminary each year. We believe this school has become outstanding in our church and deserves our loyal support.

We pledge ourselves to support the cause of temperance and to cooperate with every organization that is hastening the day of our return to national prohibition.

That we give active cooperation to city, county and state Council of Churches, Councils of Religious Education, and all other regular organized methods of interdenominational fellowship in service to Christ and his Kingdom.

Next Annual Conference

That it is the sense of the conference that the session next year be held September 14-17.

POLICY COMMITTEE.

REPORT OF THE BOUNDARY AND FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Committee on Boundary and Finance recommend the following:

1. That the Miami Conference consist of one superintendent's district.

2. That the Miami Conference elect a full time conference superintendent.

3. That the salary of the conference superintendent be $3,500, he to provide his own house and traveling expenses.

4. That the salary of the recording secretary be $100; of the statistical secretary $100; and of the conference treasurer, $335.

5. That the conference be divided into seven group leader districts.

6. That the Miami Conference Council of Administration shall consist of seven district leaders, seven associate district leaders, one of each to be appointed from each district by the Stationing Committee, the Bishop, the conference superintendent, the conference treasurer, the conference director of Christian Education, the president of the Miami Branch of the Women's Missionary Association, the editor of the Miami Messenger and the members of the Board of Conference Trustees.

7. That an offering be lifted each evening to defray conference expenses.

8. That the Conference Council meet quarterly or at the call of the Bishop or conference superintendent.

9. That the reports required from pastors shall be prepared accurately and fully and sent promptly to the conference superintendent. Pastors who fail to send reports required to the conference superintendent and statistical secretary shall explain their tardiness to the annual conference.

10. Boundaries.

a. That Potsdam, Caylor, Abbottsville and Weaver's Station constitute a charge to be known as Potsdam Circuit.

b. That Rossburg, Heistand, Yorkshire and Rose Hill be made a charge to be known as Rossburg Circuit.

c. That Waterhouse and Nashville constitute the Waterhouse-Nashville charge.

d. That Bloom Rose, Moore's Fork and Utica constitute the Bloom Rose-Moore's Fork-Utica charge.

e. That Eaton be separated from Eaton Circuit and be made a station, and that the other two churches be known as the New Hope-Pleasant Hill charge.

f. That New Haven and Harrison churches constitute a charge to be known as the New Haven-Harrison charge.

g. That Zion be placed under the College Hill Quarterly Conference.

h. That Union Chapel, West Elkton and Greenbush constitute a charge to be known as the West Elkton circuit.
